4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

People who play the lottery are always hoping for that big chance to win a super jackpot. Against all odds (literally!) they imagine winning millions. After all, someone has to win. It might as well be me. It's almost contradictory that lotteries have become part of state budgeting, when many Americans believe in the values of hard work and earning a living as opposed to the gratuitous windfall that a lottery would give someone. State income from lotteries exceeds that of tobacco excise taxes, but is less than the license fees states collect on motor vehicles. Everybody who wants something for nothing is involved. For the outlay of a miniscule amount of cash, a player dreams of an immense return. And the state gets a bonus to its income without having to tax its citizens more.

In today's Gospel, the people of Nazareth are acting a bit like lottery hopefuls, with high expectations for a significant payout with the investment of very little. They've heard about all the great things that Jesus did in Capernaum, and now they are expecting to cash in on the local boy made good. Surely he has got to work some astounding miracles here.

But Jesus is not a lottery ticket. And faith in him is not a something for nothing proposition in which all the benefits are reaped with very little investment. As we will learn as we read from Luke's Gospel in the weeks and months ahead, Jesus is headed on a journey to Jerusalem. His destiny lies in that city where he will suffer and die, and finally, through his resurrection, he will usher in the era of the Spirit that is poured out on the church. For us, following Jesus is a lifelong journey to our own Jerusalem in which we empty ourselves in the service of others. It is no lottery that we hope to win, but a share in Christ's journey through death to resurrection.

4º DOMINGO

DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Nadie es profeta en su tierra".

El Evangelio de hoy es continuación de la narración del domingo pasado. El lugar es la sinagoga de Nazaret. Jesús toma y lee el pasaje del Profeta Isaías concerniente al profeta ungido de Dios y declarado hoy. Es decir ya no había más tiempo, Jesús estaba entre nosotros, encarnado en nuestra historia y en nuestra vida. Es por esa razón que les era tan difícil a los de su pueblo el ver en él a ese gran profeta. Quizá su problema también consistía en dejar a Jesús hacer sus milagros solamente en su pueblo de Nazaret y beneficiarse ellos. Ellos querían ver más milagros ahí en su pueblo.

Muchas veces el egoísmo nos ciega y no vemos lo bueno que nos rodea. En este caso Jesús se estaba presentando ante ellos los de su pueblo querido. ¿Te ha pasado algo semejante ante tu familia, o amigos? Haces cosas buenas y no las reconocen. ¿Cómo actúas, cuál es tu respuesta? Las cosas buenas que hacemos no vienen de nosotros, debemos de reconocer que vienen de Dios. Los buenos profetas no se creen de su popularidad ni abusan de su autoridad. Por el contrario son humildes sinceros y honestos. ¿Quiénes son los profetas de nuestro tiempo? ¿Puedes pensar y mencionar algunos? ¿Cuáles son los elementos más importantes de este Evangelio? San Pablo nos da una ayudadita para entender y ser buenos profetas en la sociedad de hoy. El elemento más importante debe ser el amor. Amor en la familia, en la comunidad y en nuestro ministerio.
