

MASS INTENTIONS 		INTENCIONES PARA LAS MISAS	MARCH 3, 2013
Saturday, March 2, 2013 6:00 PM João C. Nunes (D) By Mary F. Coelho	Saturday, March 9, 2013 6:00 PM Happy Birthday Alexis Rossotti (L) By Joe/Mary Rossotti	3RD SUNDAY OF LENT A few years ago a friend of mine was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor. Bill was a good man, very kind and generous with his time and his talents. And although he didn't have a lot of money (he was a teacher by profession) he was always ready to help out in any way that he could. As a middle-aged man, Bill was fairly healthy otherwise, and his diagnosis came as a shock to his family and friends. Most of us were left asking, "Why should such a cruel thing happen to such a kind man?" This is the very question Jesus confronts in the Gospel this weekend when he deals with tragic events in his time. A tower collapses and eighteen people are killed. Is this punishment because they were the most evil people in Jerusalem? Some Galileans are slaughtered while offering sacrifice. Have they somehow offended God, and so are now being called to account for their wickedness? Jesus says that the evil that befell them makes them no guiltier than anyone else. And, by implication, makes the rest of us no less guilty! Our sense of justice likes to have the punishment fit the crime. We expect that there will be specific consequences for individual actions, each wrongful act punished on its own merits. But the problem of evil is much greater than personal sinfulness. While we each have responsibility for our individual sins, we also carry the weight of human sinfulness. As Catholics, we call that original sin, but whatever title it is given, it is the recognition that there is at work in the world a greater sin than that which each of us may be personally guilty of. It is the sin of our race. Bill did not get cancer because he was a bad man. But illness, war, hatred, and every other evil are the things from which we seek deliverance. It is good that God is patient with us, like the gardener with the fig tree.

3ER DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

A través de la temporada de

Cuaresma las lecturas de la Sagrada Escritura enfatizan el arrepentimiento, conversión y el perdón de los pecados. Su mensaje nos ofrece consuelo y esperanza, que tanto necesitamos en las diferentes etapas de nuestra vida. Las lecturas de hoy nos indican el porqué son posibles el arrepentimiento, la conversión y el perdón: son posibles gracias a la compasión y la justicia revelados por Dios en la Biblia. Hoy vemos este amor de Dios a su pueblo mediante la presencia de Moisés y la zarza ardiendo. En resumen, Dios se revela como misericordia y bondad. Cuando escuchamos esta historia de amor de Dios, ¿qué es lo que pensamos? ¿Tenemos esta misma experiencia de Dios en nuestra vida?

El Evangelio de Lucas capta el doble mensaje que la Biblia nos brinda acerca de Dios y de nosotros. Por un lado, nos exige arrepentimiento y un inmediato cambio de vida. Y por el otro, nos muestra la paciencia de Dios al esperar nuestro arrepentimiento. Así pues, Jesús marca el punto clave sobre el arrepentimiento y pone de ejemplo dos incidentes: la muerte de los Galileos y los 18 que murieron en la torre de Siloé. En lugar de entrar en debate sobre el asunto, Jesús nos invita a arrepentirnos y cambiar nuestra vida ahora, pues después puede que sea muy tarde.

Por eso enseguida hace la comparación sobre la higuera que no daba fruto. En tiempos de Jesús y hoy, ¿qué estamos haciendo en esta Cuaresma para cambiar nuestra vida? No olvidemos el dicho popular que dice, "Ahora o nunca".
