MARCH 24, 2013

PALM SUNDAY
OF THE
PASSION OF THE LORD

It's a long Mass today. Palms and Passion all rolled into one. We rejoice and we become somber as we recall some of the most important events of our faith. Remember back in January when we read from the very beginning of Luke's Gospel. This is what he said: "Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you" (Lk 1:1-3).

Luke's orderly account has Jesus slowly making his journey to Jerusalem. Today's Mass brings that journey to an end, at least as far as our reading of Luke is concerned. To the acclaim of crowds, Jesus enters the city on a colt. But his journey eventually leads him to the Mount of Olives and then to Golgotha and finally to a rock-hewn tomb. We know that this is not the end of the story. There are still other events to be fulfilled. But we will have to wait until we get to Pentecost for that final chapter of Luke's narrative.

Like the Mass this weekend, our own journey through life can have its ups and downs. We can be filled with joy one moment and saddled with grief at another. Our Lord and Savior experienced the same. As a human person like us he had joyous times and sad ones as well. The same holds true for those eyewitnesses who Luke speaks of in the introduction to his Gospel. The ones who were with Jesus from the beginning also knew both sorrow and joy. They persisted in the faith, handing down the story of Christ to our day. And in our joys and in our sorrows we pass on the faith as well.

EL DOMINGO DE
RAMOS DE LA
PASIÓN DEL SEÑOR

Con el Domingo de Ramos terminamos la Cuaresma e iniciamos la Semana Santa, o Semana Mayor. Dentro de esta semana celebraremos el Triduo Pascual, el cual inicia el Jueves Santo con la Misa de la Cena del Señor y el lavatorio de los pies a sus discípulos. El Triduo Pascual es una sola celebración que nos sumerge dentro de la pasión, muerte, y resurrección del Señor. Como bautizados, éste es un tiempo muy especial que nos identifica como seguidores de Jesucristo. La cruz y la nueva vida son parte de nuestro acontecer diario. El Señor camina a nuestro lado en el sufrimiento y en el gozo de sabernos cristianos. ¿Cómo confrontamos el sufrimiento de la cruz? ¿Cómo ayudamos a que otros confronten el dolor?

Como discípulos seguidores de Jesús, vale la pena entender y abrazar el sufrimiento. En su narración, San Lucas representa a Jesús como una víctima inocente, acusada injustamente y condenada por el poder extraño de Dios. Pilato considera y declara a Jesús inocente. El centurión, junto a la cruz, reconoce sin embargo que Jesús realmente era justo. La enseñanza de hoy es que a pesar de la injusticia, Jesús nunca miró hacia atrás en su determinación de ser fiel a Dios en su palabra y en sus caminos, inclusive hasta la muerte.
