3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

States and provinces regulate fishing seasons within their own boundaries. For some species, the fishing season is open all year long. For others, there is only a brief time that the fish can be legally taken. The season for sturgeon spearing in the upper Midwest can last just a couple of days depending on where the spearing takes place and when the limit imposed by regulation is reached. According to data collected in 2011 by the US Census Bureau, over thirty-three million Americans go fishing. In that year they spent nearly $42 billion on fishing activities including trips, equipment, and licenses. The number of people going fishing jumped by eleven percent from 2006, making it one of the most popular outdoor activities.

Peter's fishing trip in this weekend's Gospel is not quite as involved as some trips that modern day fishermen might take. Since he was a fisherman by trade, he likely walked out of his house, grabbed a few of his buddies, and went out in the boat for the night hoping to make a good catch. While there was always preparation to be done (mending the nets, repairing the boat, etc.), from the Gospel story it seems that Peter's decision to go fishing was pretty spontaneous. It was near dawn when Jesus showed up and they caught a tremendous amount of fish.

Any avid fisherman is always ready to go out and fish. Once you're out there, it could be just the right moment to pull in a lot of fish. Like a fisherman, we never quite know when the moment may come to "catch" someone for Christ. As Christians, we always have to be prepared to tell the story of who Jesus is for us, not in any kind of "preachy" way, but by living our lives as kind and loving people. The witness that we give by our example is the only kind of net we need to attract others to the Lord.

3ER DOMINGO DE PASCUA

¿Qué hermosa es la Pascua! Es un tiempo donde el Espíritu Santo trabaja en su Iglesia, haciendo de nosotros testigos obedientes hasta el final. Nuestra tarea es como la de Pedro. O sea, una continua conversión por medio del diálogo de pregunta y respuesta entre Jesús y cada uno de nosotros. El Libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles también nos ayuda a reflexionar en cómo los apóstoles, a pesar de no ser bien recibidos en Jerusalén, continuaron predicando a Cristo resucitado con la seguridad de que "Primero hay que obedecer a Dios y luego a los hombres". ¿Crees que en la sociedad actual hacemos lo mismo? ¿Qué concepto tenemos de la obediencia? Al obedecer buscamos incansablemente la voluntad de Dios en nuestra vida. Esto nos traerá por consecuencia la fidelidad al Evangelio.

San Juan nos ubica en otra historia pascual de Jesús. Si recordamos bien, la semana pasada se apareció Jesús a sus apóstoles en un cuarto donde estaban estos encerrados. Hoy se aparece a la orilla del lago donde algunos de ellos salieron a pescar. La clave de esta historia es la encomienda de Jesús a la misión del cuidado pastoral de las personas que se nos han encomendado: "sean mis testigos, sean fieles y obedezcan al Padre tal como yo lo he hecho". Como ejemplo tenemos a Pedro quien de traicionar al Señor pasó a ser la roca firme donde Cristo depositó su confianza. Dejemos que el Espíritu de Dios nos guíe, sabiendo que ya no iremos a donde nosotros queramos sino a donde Dios nos tiene determinado ir.
