5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

It's not possible for even the most astute law enforcement official to have memorized every law he is subject to. The catalog of federal, state, and local laws is simply too great. Volumes of legal code cover everything from street parking to espionage, from hunting waterfowl to truancy, from drunk driving to emission standards. Laws and ordinances abound, yet the vast majority of us go about our business each day without much of a nod to their existence. A speed limit sign may catch our attention (especially if there are flashing lights behind us). We might also keep strict compliance with our local recycling laws because it makes us feel meritorious. But generally speaking we follow the law without actually knowing all of it.

Today's Gospel takes place during the Last Supper. Judas had left and the other disciples were listening to Jesus. It is in this context that he gives them a new commandment: "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn 13:34-35).

There is the law that we must observe if we are to consider ourselves to be disciples, that is, followers of Jesus. We don't need to memorize the entire US Code or all the laws of the state in which we live to stay in compliance with the law. In the same way it is no longer necessary for us to remember all of the laws and ordinances in the Books of Leviticus, or Numbers, or Deuteronomy. We have a new law given to us by Christ. We are to "love one another." Those three words certainly have far reaching implications. We have guidance on how to follow Christ from the church. In our daily activities we have to act on what is the most loving thing to do.

5° DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Las lecturas de este domingo me hacen pensar en todas las personas que realizan su ministerio en las parroquias, y que cada año al iniciar el ciclo escolar se dan a la tarea de invitar a nuevas personas para que les ayuden a llevar a cabo la evangelización y la catequesis en sus comunidades. "Invitamos", "deseamos" y "queremos" son las palabras que hacen eco en los anuncios dominicales. Ahora nos podemos imaginar a Pablo y a Bernabé haciendo la primera evangelización así como nosotros hoy día: ellos llamaban a las personas a reunirse para anunciar la buena nueva de Jesús resucitado. Pero perseverar en la fe puede ser difícil. Por lo tanto, asistir a las reuniones parroquiales es importante en nuestro ministerio, aunque nos cueste trabajo hacerlo. El Reino de Dios es para todos y debemos de estar convencidos de esto. En la jornada encontraremos cosas difíciles, pero la invitación es clara: debemos perseverar en la fe. Es por eso que el Evangelio de San Juan da comienzo con el pasaje de la Última Cena. ¿Por qué si estamos casi al final de la Pascua hablamos de la Pasión? Sencillamente, Jesús nos recuerda que para llegar al triunfo debemos de recorrer el camino de la cruz. Y para enfatizar la cruz tenemos que entender el significado del amor. Por eso el mandamiento nuevo es dado a los discípulos, así como a nosotros ahora. El lavarnos los pies unos a otros significa el comunicarnos y comprendernos mejor, traicionarnos menos, ser fieles en el matrimonio, dar tiempo de calidad a la familia, etcétera. Solamente así llegaremos a ser vivo el mensaje de Jesús de amarnos unos a otros tal como él nos ama. ¿Lo haremos?
