How we deal with disappointment

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We all have our disappointments in life. They can range from the inconsequential (the store is out of the brand of laundry soap that I have a coupon for) to the very significant (a diagnosis of cancer or another serious illness). And we all deal with disappointments in different ways. Young children are very good at "catastrophizing" a disappointment. Mom's refusal to get that wanted candy bar in the grocery checkout line can lead to a tantrum. But as any mother knows, not giving in to a child's tantrum is teaching a lesson on how to deal with the inevitable disappointments that are part of each person's life.

In this weekend's Gospel, James and John certainly weren't happy that a Samaritan village was not very welcoming to Jesus and his band of disciples. Recall that Samaritans believed that the place to worship God was on Mt. Gerizim, and because Jesus and his disciples were on the way to Jerusalem, the Samaritans were not interested in aiding his mission. Almost like five-year-olds at the candy display in the grocery checkout line, James and John were ready to call down fire from heaven to wipe out the Samaritans. Jesus did not hesitate to rebuke them for their outburst. On the other hand, even Jesus seemed to express his own sense of disappointment when he says in the Gospel to someone who wants to follow him, "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head" (Lk 9:58).

How we deal with disappointment is a sign of maturity. Jesus makes the point in the Gospel that we have to move forward. Letting go of regrets and looking to the future is wholesome everyday advice. But putting those ideas into the realm of faith means that we confess our sins and seek absolution (the letting go) and direct our lives to God's kingdom. It is looking toward our ultimate future, which is eternal life in heaven.

13ER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Todos en algún momento de nuestro día llenamos el corazón de buenas intenciones y propósitos, especialmente al comenzar el año, al iniciar una vida matrimonial, o quizás al salir una racha de adicciones. En fin, somos una cajita de buenos deseos. Pero del dicho al hecho hay mucho trecho, y a veces ahí nos quedamos atorados, siempre posponiendo nuestros estudios y tareas. Esto da como resultado el que perdamos grandes oportunidades. El momento pasa, que es en este caso nuestra vida misma.

Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy les da a sus oyentes la oportunidad de actuar diferente, de cumplir con su invitación que va directa a la persona y el corazón. "Sígueme" es la palabra clave para que el corazón dé vueltas y respondamos al llamado. Bueno, algunos respondemos pero otros andamos solamente ocupando nuestro tiempo y recursos en vocaciones erróneas. Por dar un ejemplo, existen muchos niños abandonados por la simple razón que muchos padres de familia no hacen caso a sus responsabilidades. La resolución de Jesús es clara. Su ejemplo de cumplir la voluntad del Padre subiendo hasta Jerusalén no tiene secreto ni evasivas a pesar del costo de perder su vida misma. Si tomamos la decisión de seguir a Jesús, cambiemos pues nuestra actitud aletargada. Dejemos de ser cristianos de mañana: nuestro momento es hoy. Las necesidades son muchas y si ponemos la mano en el arado tal como nos enseña Jesús no
