17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Walking past store windows and sidewalk restaurants can enliven one's spirit as the great mass of humanity seems to be undulating with all the excitement of commerce and exchange. In large cities one can often hear multiple languages just by walking a few blocks as people from different parts of the world mix together on the sidewalks of America. Walk a few blocks in any big city and it is likely that you will come upon someone begging or panhandling on the street. In some places the beggars are very discreet, just sitting on a bench or a sidewalk with a paper cup in their hand that may have a few coins in it so as not to attract the attention of the police. In other places, the begging may be more aggressive with requests hurled at passersby. In a big city, every beggar has his regulars who give him something when they see him. But there are also the hundreds who will pass by. And then there are the occasional visitors who are unsure whether to heed the beggars' pleas or not.

In the Gospel this weekend, the disciples of Jesus ask him to teach them how to pray. He then goes on to describe for them the nature of prayer. He reminds the disciples not to give up. They must be persistent in their prayer, asking for what is needed.

Most of us probably can't ever conceive of ourselves as beggars sitting on the street corner of some large city, even though it is likely that at some point in our lives we have seen them (and maybe even given them something!). But that is exactly what we are every time we pray the Lord's Prayer. After all, we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread." You can't be much more of a beggar than that!

17º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Consciente o inconscientemente la mayoría de los padres de familia -e incluidas los abuelitos- son los encargados de enseñarnos a orar desde nuestra tierna infancia. Enseñar y aprender a orar no es fácil; es una disciplina que requiere de tiempo y de certeza que Dios nos escucha y está presente en nuestra vida. Jesús nos enseña cómo orar y nos pone alerta sobre el gran significado que esto tiene para nuestra vida familiar y comunitaria. Las ganas o la falta de ganas, la enfermedad o la salud, el buen humor o la tristeza muchas veces nos condicionan en la forma personal de orar. ¿Cuánto tiempo dedico a Dios en la oración? ¿Persevero en la oración o me desanimo fácilmente?

Cada uno de nosotros sabemos la respuesta. Pero el compromiso de todo cristiano es orar sin desanimarse. ¿Te imaginas el mundo si todos oráramos así? Existiría menos abuso de niños y adultos vulnerables y más respeto por la vida humana. El corazón del salmo responsorial consiste en una constante acción de gracias a Dios, quien nos conoce y está dispuesto a ayudarnos en cuanto esté la palabra en nuestra boca. La perseverancia continúa en la oración y renueva nuestra alianza y relación con Dios, al cual nosotros podemos vaciar nuestro corazón. Me sorprende el sinnúmero de novenas, triduos y ofertas de oración que nos motivan a orar, pero que no tienen ningún fundamento cristiano. ¡Tengamos cuidado con esto! Hay muchos impostores que dicen enseñarnos orar. Pero el único que puede hacerlo es cada uno de nosotros teniendo como modelo a Jesús.
