19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Consider the variety of ways we use the word "service" to describe the work of different people. Those who work in government are said to have given themselves to public service. Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines are all part of the armed services. Hotel and restaurant employees are said to work in the service industries, along with barbers, hair dressers, flight attendants, and entertainers, although it is a bit of a stretch to imagine folks like Jimmy Kimmel, Jay Leno, or Stephen Colbert in the same category as the hotel housekeeping staff. Every one of these service-oriented groups also has its caricature of the lazy, inefficient provider. There's the often joked about drivers' license examiner. There's Beetle Bailey of cartoon fame. And comedy skits about airline stewardesses or hotel maids abound. Yet all of these professions continue to distinguish themselves, despite the occasional "bad apple" that may turn up.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus makes it clear that a servant (that is, a believer) must be constantly vigilant. Peter asked directly, "Is the parable meant for us or for everyone?" Jesus didn't answer him directly, but went on to add another parable describing the prudent, industrious servant and the lazy one.

We do not know when the Lord will return, and so we cannot rest on our laurels as though one good deed or one proclamation of the Gospel is enough. Yes, we have our employment, our family, our personal needs that we must attend to. But we are also servants of the Lord. When we get up in the morning, while we are preparing for the day and running through in our heads the list of everything we must accomplish that day, one of the things we can ask ourselves is, "What kind of a servant of God am I going to be today?" That can give us a sense of what can guide our actions as we work through the day.

19º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Desde pequeños sabemos que cumplir con esmero los deberes que se nos encargan, como las tareas escolares y de casa, nos lleva a estar listos siempre. De esa forma cuando nuestros padres pregunten por las tareas encomendadas y vean que están terminadas y bien hechas el premio se goza doblemente por haber cumplido. La educación en el cumplimiento del deber es de toda la vida. Pequeños y grandes estamos siempre en diferentes niveles de aprendizaje.

En el Evangelio de este domingo Jesús nos aconseja que el esperar siempre bien preparados para cuando él venga a visitarnos es regla de oro. No debemos entretenernos en cosas inmediatas sino en las que perduran para la eternidad. Las dos parábolas que Jesús nos narra son para estimular la vigilancia a su regreso. También nos enseñan compartir lo que tenemos. Es decir, somos responsables de los talentos que nos ha dado el Señor. Estar preparados significa tener la bolsa lista, los zapatos puestos y -lo más importante- el corazón dispuesto a servir y a trabajar. El dejar las divisiones, las envidias en la familia y grupos parroquiales es ya una manera de estar listos para cuando se nos llame a rendir cuentas. Usar con cuidado lo que se nos ha encomendado es trabajo de toda la vida.

A DAY OF SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT

The Sister Disciples of the Divine Master will facilitate this day, Saturday, August 24th from 9:30 am-3:00 pm for young single women ages 18-35 years at the Convent, 3700 N. Cornelia Avenue in Fresno. Bring a sack lunch, notebook and pen. For registration, please call Sr. Aurora 275-9978. Donations accepted.

Pero esto no debe de desanimarnos pues Cristo Jesús está siempre con nosotros. Él toca constantemente a nuestra puerta indicándonos el cómo servir mejor. ¿Dónde puedo encontrar al Señor? ¿Con quién me espera? El Señor está presente en las caras de alegría y de dolor de nuestros hermanos y hermanas.
