being attentive to our neighbor

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Quarterly earnings reports for many publicly traded companies have either just been released or will be in the next week or so. Since every company reports them on its own schedule after the end of the quarter, it is a rolling release that investors will examine in the days to come. How well a company does will affect its share price on the stock exchange, and the compensation that is eventually determined by the board of directors for a company's leaders. Company policies or union contracts often determine how the rest of the workforce down the line get to share in any benefits of a positive earnings report.

The words of Jesus in the Gospel may seem a bit harsh this week. He tells his apostles that they could describe themselves as unprofitable servants who have only done what they were obliged to do. It does not seem to be a very flattering picture of what it means to be a Christian. In Jesus' day a servant performed such menial tasks that it is hard for us to even imagine them today. We hear Jesus describing the master as telling the servant to prepare something for him to eat. Such actions required much more than popping something in a microwave. Meal preparation involved hard work like grinding grain, catching fish, plucking chickens, or gathering produce. It even meant hauling jars of water from the communal well. And the next day it was the same all over again.

We are fortunate to live in the era that we do. While our daily work may not always seem as exciting as it could be, we are spared much of the drudgery of the past. For us, being a servant is an entirely different dimension. We don't go down to the lake or river in hopes of catching some food for the master. Instead, our servitude is that of being attentive to our neighbor. Our earnings report will shine if we do that!

El Reino de DIOS se vive con fe y paciencia

27º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El lamento del profeta Habacuc, denunciando la violencia y la injusticia debatiendo estrepitosamente la discordia en sus tiempos, parecía no tener principio ni fin. Algo parecido pasa con todo el ir y venir de los debates para el control de armas. Mientras esto pasa la violencia y la muerte de inocentes parece no tener fin. Debates públicos marchan por las calles promoviendo el alto a portar armas y con la mirada puesta en la visión de un mundo donde reine la paz. Si observamos, el profeta quería la intervención de Dios para que pusiera fin a las dificultades de su tiempo. Es por eso que Dios le dice a Habacuc lo siguiente: “Escribe la visión que te he manifestado, ponla clara en tablillas para que se pueda leer de corrido...El malvado sucumbirá sin remedio; el justo, en cambio, vivirá por su fe”. Es decir, donde todos la puedan ver y entender. El Reino de Dios se vive con fe y paciencia.

Es por esta razón que podemos decir que la fe es el tema principal del Evangelio de este domingo. Los apóstoles se lo pidieron al Señor: “Auméntanos la fe”. La fe pura y sencilla es la que puede ser aumentada, y hasta mover montañas. Es la confianza incondicional de Dios para hacer cosas maravillosas en las personas. Pero a la vez, esta fe no puede ser manipulada por nuestros caprichos al estilo de los fariseos y ricos en los tiempos del Señor.
