Hallowed Evening

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Many people will be celebrating Halloween this week, often with costumes, parties, and trick-or-treating. This holy evening the night before All Saints' Day is a time to cast out evil and to frighten away the darkness. The light of the jack-o'-lanterns with their scary faces is meant to intimidate the evil that lurks around in the night as we march into the day celebrating the saints triumphant. While some people may get caught up in the exuberance of a holiday, reveling without a thought to the holy day that follows, Halloween is by virtue of its very name, a sacred night. The saints whom we honor are people who threw aside darkness so that they could live as sons and daughters of light, who never pretended to be anything other than children of God.

The parable that Jesus tells in the Gospel today presents us with two men, a Pharisee and a tax collector. The Pharisee is so convinced of his own righteousness that he doesn't hesitate to tell God how good a man he thinks himself to be. In the meantime, it is the tax collector who is aware of his own need for God's mercy because of his recognition of his own faults before God. Jesus points out that the man who acknowledged his sinfulness was the man who went home justified.

They didn't celebrate Halloween in the days of the Pharisee and the tax collector. But the Pharisee seemed ready to dress himself up in all kinds of virtue in an attempt to show his supposed righteousness. We may dress up on Halloween in some outlandish costume just for fun. But in our lives each day we really need to put on Christ. Like the saints, we wear our dignity as sons and daughters of God, acknowledging our faults, seeking God's help, and abandoning any evil that lures us away from holiness. Then we'll have a real Hallowed Evening!

30° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El Evangelio de hoy es continuación del domingo pasado, solo que ahora se nos presenta una situación diferente. La vez pasada un juez y una viuda; en la situación presente un fariseo y un publicano. Ambas situaciones incluyen personajes distintos en su hacer y vivir. El fariseo pertenecía a una clase respetada debido a su escrupuloso cumplimiento de la ley hasta su último ápice. Los fariseos eran tenidos por santos. El personaje del publicano era de recaudador de impuestos. O sea, estafadores. Ambos subieron la escalinata del templo para hacer su oración. El fariseo se sentía muy satisfecho de sí mismo, de tal modo que ante Dios se sentía merecedor de todo. Algo así como una especie de hombre perfecto. En cambio el publicano, avergonzado y atribulado por sus culpas, se presenta ante Dios para ser perdonado. Las palabras del Evangelio son muy claras y precisas: la oración nunca debe ser una letanía de nuestros méritos ante Dios, pues no debemos de olvidar que todo lo bueno que hagamos es gracias a la gracia del Señor. Pidamos con gratitud por la misericordia que ya hemos recibido y dejemos que ésta misma nos transforme en mejores personas. También dejemos las tendencias de compararnos con otras personas. ¿Podremos hacerlo? Veamos el final de la parábola, cuando el cobrador de impuestos gana una relación íntima con el Señor.

FOOD DRIVE

We are asking our parishioners to bring canned goods and non-perishable food items for our Thanksgiving and Christmas Drives. Last year we were able to serve 23 families in our community and some Lemoore naval air base families. Thank you. We were able to do this, only, because of your generosity.

LITURGICO-SPIRITUAL RETREAT

Lumen Fidei: The First Encyclical of Pope Francis November 16, 2012 a day of reflection from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm at PDDM Convent at 3700 N. Cornelia Avenue. Registration fee $20. Please bring your lunch. Reservations and further info, contact Sr. Mary Margaret Tapang 275-1656.

Se sabe pecador y por esta razón regresa a casa con la gracia de Dios. Reconocer nuestras debilidades es ya un paso a la apertura de la misericordia de Dios. ¿Cuál es nuestra tendencia actual? ¿Somos acaso como el fariseo o como el publicano?
