5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

is, in heaven. What could be more satisfying, more beautiful, more perfect? Heaven is where we find the "fulfillment of the deepest human longings" (Catechism of the Catholic Church §1024). Our longing for love that doesn't fail, our longing for peace that doesn't end, our longing for happiness that doesn't fade away-all of this is awaiting us. Today, Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to "prepare a place" for them. We are his disciples too, and so we also have a spot in the "Father's house." But we need to make sure we know how to get there!

This is what Thomas the (doubting) Apostle asked about in today's Gospel: "How can we know the way?" Thomas wants to be sure about things. He is looking for a kind of spiritual road map to give him the confidence that he's on the right path. This is what we have in Jesus. He responds to Thomas' question with these words: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." In other words, Jesus is like an infallible heavenly GPS. He gets us where we want to go.

By heeding Christ's teachings and following his example, we can navigate through the many competing "ways" that vie for our attention. But more than just serving as a spiritual signpost, Jesus wants us to be in a real relationship with him. As he asks Philip today, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me?" If Jesus himself is the way, then it is only by truly knowing him that we will find our way to heaven where we will finally behold him face-to-face.

5º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Si creyéramos del todo en las promesas del Señor, que felices viviríamos. Pero como las preocupaciones nos abruman, no comprendemos del todo el mensaje y acabamos confundidos, tal como Felipe en el Evangelio de hoy que pide que se le muestre al Padre: "Señor, muéstranos al Padre y eso nos basta". La respuesta de Jesús no se hace esperar. Él desea que veamos cómo nos ha abierto camino a nuestra casa: "No pierdan la paz. Si creen en Dios, crean también en mí. En la casa de mi Padre hay muchas habitaciones". Es decir, en la casa del Señor hay lugar para todos nosotros. Cada uno estará en su propia casa, pero también estando en comunión con todos los demás.

Cuando somos fieles ningún problema o ansiedad debe de apartarnos del amor de Cristo. Como dice San Pablo, si deseamos saber quién es Dios, nuestro deber es conocer quién es Jesús (Rom 8, 35). Eso lo lograremos estudiando y orando con su palabra, viviendo la liturgia, haciendo justicia y no oprimiendo a los débiles. Algunas de estas obras son las que nos abrirán el camino a la casa del Padre. Ser personas activas durante la Pascua significa que seamos capaces de abrir nuestro corazón al Espíritu Santo y trabajar en el Reino para que todos vayamos al Padre. Recordemos las palabras de Jesús: "Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida. Nadie va al Padre si no es por mí". ¿De qué forma el Evangelio de hoy es un reto para incrementar nuestra relación con Jesús resucitado? ¿Cómo es nuestra relación con el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo? Si estamos en buena relación con el Señor, nuestro corazón no debe de inquietarse.
