God wants us to be saved

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him." God wants us to be saved. To be saved from sin and the pain, misery, and despair that come with it. But God wants to do more than save us "from" bad things. God also wants to save us "for" good things. To save us for heaven, for holiness, for the happiness that doesn't fade away. God wants what's best for us.

That's why he sent his Son. He didn't send a servant or a slave. He didn't send a messenger or a minion. He sent part of himself, his own Son, the second person of the Trinity. This was obviously a mission of great love.

As we hear in today's reading, God gave his only Son, Jesus, "so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." To believe in Jesus is to accept two radical claims of Christianity. First, that God is the Trinity, three-persons-in-one-God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And second, that God loved us enough to become One of us through his incarnation. We refer to these things as "mysteries of the faith" because they aren't easy to explain or understand. But through faith, we can accept them and live according to them.

In this day and age, we are often discouraged from being people of faith. We are expected to accept scientific facts and figures, but when it comes to spiritual mysteries like the Incarnation or the Trinity, our culture tends to be skeptical. As Christians, we are called to bear witness to this culture. Through our faith, we can encourage others to accept that these mysteries are not fantasies. God has really sent his Son to save the world! Let us do our part to help "the world" to believe it's true.

LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

La solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad es siempre en el primer domingo después de la Cincuentena pascual. Se puede considerar como una síntesis de todo lo que hemos venido celebrando a lo largo de la Pascua. Todo está revelado en el misterio pascual de Cristo. Y aunque es corto el Evangelio de hoy, la verdad es que nos dice mucho. Su mensaje es directo: "Tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga la vida eterna". Las tres lecturas nos revelan esta realidad.

Para entender mucho mejor a la Santísima Trinidad recomiendo que lean la primera encíclica del Papa Benedicto XVI Dios es amor. Dios nos ha regalado a su Hijo, quien es un misterio divino que no se puede comprender o controlar, sino que se debe aceptar como un regalo que Dios nos ofrece. Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo son una comunidad de amor. Él es Creador, Salvador y Santificador. ¿Hemos tenido la oportunidad de experimentarlo así? ¿Puedes reflexionar en esa ocasión? La Palabra de Dios nos invita el día de hoy a creer en Dios Padre para poder vivir como sus hijos e hijas, a creer en Dios Hijo para vivir como sus hermanos y hermanas y a creer en Dios Espíritu Santo que nos anima a hacer el bien. Celebremos pues el misterio de la Trinidad reflejando su amor en el matrimonio, la familia, la comunidad y en la sociedad que nos rodea. Dejemos que su presencia santificadora habite en nuestros corazones. La Eucaristía es esencial para ello. ¡Participemos plenamente en ella!
