14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”

Who wouldn't appreciate some real rest? Most of us fall into the category of those "who labor." We have our jobs to do, our families to tend to, our responsibilities to take care of. Often, the tasks seem endless and our time seems so limited. How can we justify "rest" with so many things on our to-do lists? Even recreation can be labor intensive when it involves planning, preparing, traveling, or hosting. And our default modes of "resting"—whether it be watching television, taking a nap, or chatting with a friend—rarely refresh us for more than a few hours. But the rest Jesus is describing is different than this. He isn't talking about an occasional "time-out" from the duties of life. Jesus is offering us a deeper kind of relief, a liberation from the exhaustion of life.

This freedom comes when we take his yoke on our shoulders. Jesus tells us, in essence, to align ourselves with him—to do our work with him. All of our duties and responsibilities can be done with Jesus at our side. He does not promise that our obligations will magically disappear. The "rest" he offers is a kind of peace even amidst our daily lives. The refreshment Jesus brings is the comfort of his presence as we engage in the everyday tasks that we are called to do. It is not that there are no longer burdens to bear; rather, the burden is "light" when we share it with the Lord. But just how do we share the load? Perhaps by starting the morning in prayer asking Jesus to assist us, or by seeking his guidance in daily decisions, or by offering our actions to him. However we do it, when we come to him as he asked, he promises, "you will find rest."

14º DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“¡Te doy gracias, Padre, Señor del cielo y de la tierra, porque has escondido estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos, y las has revelado a la gente sencilla!” El valor de la sencillez es algo único. Es ver los acontecimientos de la vida desde el corazón. El Papa Francisco nos lo muestra constantemente en sus actos sencillos con las personas que le rodean, así como mediante los sucesos de su vida. La sencillez brota del corazón de los pobres. Los sabios, poderosos y entendidos nunca la verán. ¡Dios en la historia de la salvación siempre se ha revelado a los sencillos! Para poder contemplar la acción y bondad de Dios en nuestra vida y todo lo que conlleva, hay que saber vivir con optimismo y esperanza, las cuales vienen de la fe que profesamos. ¡Éste es el maravilloso mensaje del Evangelio de hoy! ¿Lo comprendemos?

Para aprender a vivir con sencillez, Jesús nos dice: “Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga, y yo los aliviaré... porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera”. ¿A qué se refería Jesús cuando hablaba de un yugo suave y carga ligera? Jesús sabía que nuestra vida puede ser pesada y llena de complicaciones. Eso puede disminuir nuestros ánimos. El trabajo, la familia, los compromisos y la falta de entendimiento de los unos para con los otros disminuye el aliento. Entonces, ¿cómo seguir adelante? Sencillamente, confiando y creyendo en la presencia del Espíritu, dado en nuestro bautismo, quien nos lleva a encontrar ese gozo que el profeta Zacarías nos recuerda en la primera lectura de hoy: “¡Alégrate sobremanera, hija de Sión”.
