			15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME "Hear then the parable of the sower." With his analogy of the sower and the seed, Jesus gives us four images to help us gauge the depth of our spiritual maturity. What kind of "soil" does our faith exist in? Are we fruitful Christians? Does our seed yield as much as it could? The first image is of the seed that fell on the path. This describes those who hear about Christianity "without understanding it." Nothing can grow, nothing can blossom at this level. We should ask ourselves if we have taken the time to be sure we understand the faith we practice. Are we stuck at a superficial level, allowing stereotypes, popular opinion, or media distortions to "steal away" the richness of the Catholic faith? Perhaps we have been properly educated in the teachings of the faith, but our commitment has been fickle. Are we the seed on the rocky ground, that "has no root and lasts only for a time"? Have we experienced difficulties in the practice of our faith that have led us to become indifferent? Have we found it just too troublesome to bring our faith into our everyday lives? Or have we heard the word, but allowed it to be choked by "worldly anxiety and the lure of riches"? Do we appreciate Christianity but fail to make the sacrifices that it requires? Are we more interested in a comfortable life than anything else? Many of us have sampled these stages at different times. But ultimately, our goal as Christians is to be "the seed sown on rich soil." We are called to be open to hearing the word, to seek to understand it, and to allow it to take firm root in our hearts. When we do this, the seed of our own faith can produce a rich harvest for the world.

15º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Dichosos, ustedes, porque sus ojos ven y sus oídos oyen”. El Evangelio de hoy, además de sugerir ese gozo, nos ayuda a ver la realidad con esperanza. Nos invita a no tener la tendencia de encerrarnos en un mundo pequeño, el cual queremos controlar de acuerdo a nuestra capacidad de dar fruto y darlo en abundancia. Jesús nos hace notar que la esperanza tiene un límite. Nuestra ilusión debe ser basada en la Palabra del Señor Jesús, el Sembrador. Sembrador que usa las parábolas como instrumento de diálogo con los hombres. Ésa es la forma como él propone el Reino de Dios, el cual se abre a todas las personas de buen corazón. ¿Soy una de esas personas? ¿Cuánto y cómo puedo sembrar?

La advertencia es que tengamos cuidado con los mensajes falsos que dicen ayudarnos a ver la vida mejor, pero que más bien nos alejan del Reino. ¿Sabemos cuáles son? Ahora es el tiempo de que examinemos nuestro interior y clarifiquemos nuestra agenda de poder, así como la influencia de las distracciones que nos rodean. Muchas veces estas distracciones se “comen” la semilla que nos da el Señor, dejándonos engañados, vacíos y sin lugar para la esperanza. Escuchar la Palabra exige fidelidad. Y vaya que ser fiel no es fácil. San Pablo nos advierte en la segunda lectura que el sufrimiento estará presente, pero que al aceptarlo y transformarlo se le da cabida a la gracia. Escuchemos, pues, atentamente la Palabra del Señor de este domingo. Ojalá que se quede para siempre en nuestro corazón.
