22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” Profit and gain. Most of us would be happy to experience these things. In our capitalist economy, profit is the point. Gain is the goal. Thought of in terms of money or possessions, having plenty of them often offers us a sense of security and sometimes a kind of pleasure. But today Jesus warns us about putting too much stock in this kind of worldly security.

It’s important to recognize that Jesus isn’t condemning money or possessions in and of themselves. But he is advocating a radical rethinking of our priorities. In a way, he turns everything upside down. Instead of giving us tips to “gain the whole world,” Jesus instructs us to take up our cross and follow him, and to lose our life for his sake. This is not a message about gain but about loss. At least, that’s how it appears on the surface. When we take up our cross-embracing the sacrifices that come with our vocation, or accepting the sufferings that inevitably cross our path-it may not gain us immediate relief, but it will unite us to Christ who suffered for us on the cross. When we lose our life for his sake-giving of our time, our talents, and our treasure for the sake of those we love or those in need-it may not fill our pocketbooks, but it will fill our hearts.

Jesus wants our lives to be full. Full of love, full of peace, full of joy. Today he reminds us to be sure we aren’t so full of other “stuff” that we have no room left for what truly satisfies. Jesus promises that in losing our life for his sake, we will find it in the end. May we have the confidence to put our trust in this promise.

22º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Estamos ahora trabajando para un mejor entendimiento de la Nueva Evangelización. Se nos dice que debe ser nueva en su ardor y métodos. Es decir, tener la capacidad de compartir una nueva manera de entender a Dios y su Reino. Ésta es nuestra misión actual. ¿Cómo hacerlo? Quizá muchos de ustedes ya lo hacen. Quizás otros apenas comienzan a reflexionar en lo que esto conlleva. Mientras tanto, el Evangelio de hoy nos puede ayudar a ver lo nuevo y a emprender métodos que den alcance a muchas otras personas. Si bien recordamos, el domingo pasado San Pedro pasó el examen de la pregunta de Jesús con una A+. Sin embargo, ahora está reprobado. ¿Qué le pasó? Sencillamente, en su modo de pensar no cabe que el liberador de Israel tenga que sufrir y morir, y mucho menos ser juzgado por los sumos sacerdotes y los escribas.

San Pedro, por lo tanto, olvida su discipulado y entra de consejero. A pesar de expresarse con todo su amor, se lleva aparte a Jesús: lo pretende sacar de la comunidad, corregirlo y darle una lección aparte. La reacción de Jesús no se hace esperar y le da la siguiente respuesta: “¡Apártate de mí, Satanás!” Satanás quiere decir “tentador”. En este caso en particular, Satanás tienta la no realización de los planes de Dios en Jesús. ¡Qué buena lección de humildad aprendió San Pedro! Antes de iniciar algo nuevo, debemos de ver el bien común, no el propio, aunque tengamos que pasar por momentos difíciles donde se pruebe la capacidad de compromiso y fidelidad. ¡Ánimo!
