root out the weed of GREED

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance." The tenants in today's parable murdered because of their greed. They had no respect for either the servants or the son of their landlord. Motivated only by their desire to own the property they cultivated, they did whatever was necessary to further their cause. But they were fools. They only thing they inherited was a death sentence in return for their wickedness.

Greed can act like poison to an otherwise healthy mind. Instead of allowing one to think clearly, an obsession with having "more" can cloud a person's judgment. Certainly it won't always lead to murder, but more often than not it leads to using people for our own ends or dismissing those who cannot help us get what we want. Treating others this way is never acceptable. It is an offense to human dignity and to God who made us in his own image. Greed can also have a blinding influence, preventing us from seeing the blessings that surround us. When our focus is on what we want instead of what we have, the tendency is to forget that we have anything at all. The only thing we can see is that which we don't yet possess.

Ultimately, greed makes us miserable. It fosters discontent for our life and disrespect for the lives of others. It is certainly not a fruit of the kingdom of God. Belonging to this heavenly realm means living a life of generosity instead of greediness. It means looking for ways to share what we have to improve the lives of others instead of hoarding more to "improve" our own lives. Jesus tells us that his kingdom belongs to those who produce its fruit. May we root out the weed of greed and instead cultivate generosity in the vineyard of our hearts.

2º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
¡Dios actúa y sigue actuando en nuestra historia; desde siempre su presencia ha habitado entre nosotros! Durante los cuatro domingos de octubre estaremos reuniéndonos en torno a la Eucaristía para escuchar el cómo Jesús pregona la historia de la salvación. El Reino de Dios es el interrogante que Jesús siempre plantea a los sumos sacerdotes de su tiempo y nos lo sigue insinuando a nosotros con insistencia; su palabra es siempre como arma de dos filos que nos obliga a elegir para nuestro cambio de actitud.
En este caso, Dios es el dueño de la viña y se ven claramente dos dimensiones en el Evangelio. La primera es ver cómo es nuestra relación con Dios y la segunda el cómo actuamos en esta sociedad con nosotros mismos y con los que nos rodean. ¿Qué hará el dueño del viñedo? Con los mal agradecidos y prepotentes que no confían en su amor. Con los que convierten a su esposa o esposo en mero objeto de placer. Con los que arrinconamos a nuestros ancianos porque ya nos estorban. Con los enfermos en casa que dejamos solos. Y por último, con los que hemos matado a su Hijo. Gracias a Dios tenemos la Eucaristía que es la ayuda que nos da el mismo Dios. Al recibir el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo poco a poco nos va transformando interiormente. Al comulgar nos vamos Cristificando. Nos vamos transformando en personas de bien. ¿Habías reflexionado en esto? ¿Qué podemos hacer? Bueno, san Pablo nos dice que "No se inquieten por nada; más bien, presenten en toda ocasión sus peticiones a Dios". La inquietud debe ser siempre el no alejarnos de Dios. ¡Así permaneceremos en su viña!
