FATHER JERRY'S BIBLE CLASS CANCELLED

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendor of true love, to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches. Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division; may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing. Holy Family of Nazareth, may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan. Jesus, Mary and Joseph graciously hear our prayer.

AUTUMN MOON FESTIVAL St. Genevieve will be holding its fund raiser on November 1st. The 6:00 pm dinner at Imperial Garden Restaurant features a 9 course Cantonese meal priced at $35.

BEAUTIFUL SOULS

worthy of the heavenly wedding feast

28TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come.” Why? What made the king’s invitation so distasteful to these guests? According to the parable, either the guests were too busy with their farms and their businesses, or else they were downright hostile to the entire idea: they “laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them.” What could possibly explain this resistance? Perhaps we have a clue in the puzzling conclusion of today’s Gospel. One of the second-string guests pulled in from the streets came to the feast “not dressed in a wedding garment.” The man knew he was guilty, hence his silence. And the king’s punishment suggests that the fellow ought to have known better. This “wedding garment” calls to mind the preparation of our souls necessary to join in the great “wedding feast of the Lamb” (Rv 19:9), that is, heaven. This man was apparently just too lazy to get ready. He presumed that having received an invitation to the banquet was enough, that nothing was required of him. Not so. He should have demonstrated his gratitude by dressing appropriately. And what of the first-string guests? Some were too busy to bother coming; others were furious that they had been invited at all. Now, where do we fit in? Are we more concerned with worldly work than with spiritual growth? Are we offended by the very suggestion that we might need to “dress up” our souls? Or are we the disinterested Christian, willing to feast but too lazy to foster his faith? Jesus gave his life to open the gates of heaven for us. Let’s show our gratitude by preparing radiant, beautiful souls worthy of the heavenly wedding feast.

28º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Las lecturas que nos presenta la liturgia este domingo, concretamente la primera y la del Evangelio, nos ofrecen la oportunidad de centrar nuestro enfoque en la Eucaristía. Ahondaremos en la comprensión de este sacramento como banquete. El Concilio Vaticano II nos redescubre la Eucaristía como banquete y esto no contrapone con el otro significado de sacrificio. Los dos rasgos se complementan. Pues, bien, el Papa Francisco en su homilía del 30 de mayo de 2013 nos anima con lo siguiente. “La Eucaristía es el sacramento de la Comunión, que nos hace salir del individualismo para vivir juntos el seguimiento, la fe en él. Entonces todos deberíamos preguntarnos ante el Señor: ¿cómo vivo yo la Eucaristía? ¿La vivo de modo anónimo o como momento de verdadera comunión con el Señor, pero también con todos los hermanos y las hermanas que comparten esta misma mesa?” Reflexionemos en algún momento del día o durante la semana qué le responderíamos al Papa Francisco ante sus preguntas.

Por otra parte, Jesús nos da una cátedra en el Evangelio de cómo les respondió a los sacerdotes del Templo y a los ancianos del pueblo que le cuestionaban sobre su autoridad. A Dios lo que es de Dios y al César lo que le pertenece. Y lo que le pertenece a Dios en este caso es lo que cada domingo nos ofrece, la Eucaristía. Vayamos, pues, al banquete dominical; seamos cristianos no solo de estar sentados en la banca, sino de obra. Y a vivir como Dios manda: ¡Como sus hijos e hijas!
