30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” The law of love. That’s what Jesus came to establish. In a religious milieu that was often marked by legalism and scrupulosity, Jesus brought a kind of freedom. He reminded us that the laws of religion are made to serve the ultimate goal of love: love for God and love for neighbor.

Think about the Ten Commandments. This classical summary of God’s rules for us can be divided into two types of laws. First come the laws about loving God: have no strange gods; don’t take the Lord’s name in vain; honor the Sabbath. Then come the laws about loving our neighbor: honor your parents; don’t kill; don’t commit adultery; don’t steal; be honest; and don’t covet your neighbor’s spouse or property. When we follow the law of love that Jesus preaches today, all of this is taken care of.

If we loved God with our whole heart, mind, and soul, for example, there would be no room left for false gods. There would be no bitterness or apathy leading us to disrespect God’s name or to fail to worship him as he has asked. Similarly, if we loved our neighbors as ourselves by following the Golden Rule, then we would naturally respect them instead of lying, killing, coveting, or the like.

Ultimately, all the dos and don’ts of the law are just specific guidelines describing what love looks like. This is very helpful for those times when love doesn’t come so easily to us. When we struggle with having our heart in the right place, the Ten Commandments give us direction. But as Jesus instructs us today, the goal is to grow in the kind of love that naturally leads us to want to do what’s best.

30º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El domingo pasado Jesús fue puesto a prueba respecto al dinero de los impuestos. Hoy, nos dice la palabra de Dios que mucha gente le escuchaba y se asombraba de sus enseñanzas. Sin embargo, una vez más los fariseos se reunieron para hacerle la siguiente pregunta: “Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento más grande de la ley?” La respuesta de Jesús no se hizo esperar: “Amarás al señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente”. Único y gran mandamiento, pero hay otro muy parecido. “Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo”. Todos sabemos que la ley y los profetas tienen su base en estos dos mandamientos. Y ¿ahora cuál es la ley, cuál el mandamiento?

El Papa Francisco, en la audiencia general del 12 de junio de 2013, nos lo clarifica para nuestros tiempos “la ley del amor”. “¿Cuál es la ley del pueblo de Dios? Es la ley del amor, amor a Dios y amor al prójimo según el mandamiento nuevo que nos dejó el Señor (cf. Jn 13, 34). Un amor, sin embargo, que no es estéril sentimentalismo o algo vago, sino que es reconocer a Dios como único Señor de la vida y, al mismo tiempo, acoger al otro como verdadero hermano, superando divisiones, rivalidades, incomprensiones, egoísmos; las dos cosas van juntas. ¡Cuánto camino debemos recorrer aún para vivir en concreto esta nueva ley!” ¿Con que batallamos más, amando a Dios o amando al vecino? ¿Qué es lo que Dios nos llama a hacer?
