3RD SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

"Repent, and believe in the gospel."
What would happen if Jesus spoke these commanding words today? Would his listeners accuse him of shoving his religion down their throats? Would they give him a lecture on tolerance or insist that repentance is an outdated idea from a bygone era obsessed with guilt? How many of us would actually listen to him, take him at his word, and do what he said?

Our modern sensitivities have been programmed to respond with skepticism, if not anger, to any suggestion that there is a "right" way of doing things or a "true" religion. Much of our culture subtly preaches that right and wrong is all relative and that religions are all generally the same. But when Jesus tells us to repent, he implies that some of the choices we are making are wrong, that we need to change; to eliminate our sins, to turn toward God, and to become more loving, more generous, and more forgiving. And when he tells us to believe in the Gospel, he's not just making a recommendation or offering some sage advice. He is giving us directions for what we need to do to enter into "the kingdom of God."

The challenge we face in our day and age is to silence the societal messages that color our thoughts and instead listen to Jesus with an open mind. Are we willing to let his words affect us? Are we ready to examine our lives and repent of our sins? Are we prepared to believe the good news he preached of salvation and forgiveness? His message is more than a command. It's an invitation. He wants us to share in the glory of his heavenly kingdom, now and for all eternity. The question is only how we will respond to this divine invitation.

3ER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

¡Si todos entendiéramos las palabras del Evangelio de hoy, cuantas cosas buenas no haríamos! No andaríamos entretenidos en vanidades que no valen la pena. Pero veamos que nos dice Jesús: "Se ha cumplido el tiempo y el Reino de Dios ya está cerca. Arrepíentanse y crean en el Evangelio". Jesús nos pide un esfuerzo serio de conversión. La conversión-que significa cambio-nos empuja a mejorar nuestra propia vida y dejar por un lado las malas actitudes que no nos conducen a nada. Hoy se nos brinda la invitación a revisar nuestros valores y ver hacia donde van nuestras prioridades de relación con los que nos rodean. ¿Cuáles son nuestros valores? ¿Cuáles son los valores de la sociedad? Vale la pena que hagamos una lista de ellos y renunciemos a los que nos impiden alcanzar el Reino.

El tiempo apremia y debemos estar en la pista. Trabajemos. No dejemos para mañana lo que podemos hacer hoy. No hay que malgastar la vida amargados y amargando la vida de los que nos rodean. Aprovechemos cada minuto del día para hacer nuestros deberes con tal amor que se note que dejamos en nuestras actividades el amor mismo que llevamos dentro. No hay mejor tiempo que el de hoy, pues nadie sabe si mañana llegará. Jesús nos llama ahora como a los hijos de Zebedeo. Dejemos la barca de nuestras inseguridades, miedos e intransigencias. El Reino es para los que lo hacen feliz a pesar de sus dificultades. Conversión también quiere decir perdonar y reconciliar. La Eucaristía, que es parte del Reino de Dios, nos ayuda a mover nuestros corazones y voluntad para reorientar con fe y esperanza las enseñanzas que Jesús nos revela hoy. ¡Señor, enséñanos tus caminos!

IT'S TIME TO LET GOD
DO THE TALKING

During Mass, we are at the foot of the cross, witnessing the presentation of the sacrifice at Calvary. Keep sacred silence in the church. Avoid unnecessary conversation and keep necessary conversation to a very low whisper. Silence your cell phone. If your child is disruptive enough to distract people or make it hard for them to listen, please step outside a few moments. Do not chew gum, or bring food and drink into the church. Dress to show proper respect not only for God, but for others around you. Wear clothes that are modest.

Remember to let GOD do the talking so YOU can do the listening.

The reign of God is now. Are you willing to drop what you are doing to follow Jesus' call? Believe that God will give you what you need.
Mark 1:14-20
