His teaching was new, fresh, surprising. The Jewish people were used to the teaching style of their scribes, the scholars who interpreted the Scriptures and taught the corresponding laws. The scribes were legalists by trade, who focused on what was required of the Jews based on the holy writings. For them, the law was dominant. But when Jesus showed up in the synagogue and began to teach, he was dominant. As the incarnate Son of God, he spoke with an authority that was greater even than the religious laws. And just in case those who heard him doubted his legitimacy, Jesus proved his authority by more than words; he cast out evil spirits. When the people witnessed Jesus commanding “even the unclean spirits” and saw that these spirits obeyed him, they were “amazed” at this “new teaching with authority.” What our Jewish ancestors experienced is recorded for us to bolster our own faith. Although we were not there to see these events unfold, if we meditate on the reality of today’s Gospel story we will also be astonished and amazed. Jesus is more than a teacher. He is more than a kind man with an attractive philosophy. Jesus has power over the spiritual world! His authority over us is real. And he exercises this authentic authority for our own good. He has the power to do away with evil and to set us free, both through his teachings-passed on to us in the Bible and in the Church-and through his action in our lives. We only need to follow his lead. 4º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO No sé si has tenido la experiencia de tener padres, maestros, amigos, sacerdotes y religiosas que enseñan con autoridad: la autoridad que viene de la sabiduría, del entendimiento, y que es practicada con amor. El Evangelio de hoy muestra la autoridad de Jesús al hacerle frente a un espíritu malo. ¡Jesús había sido puesto a prueba! La gente quedó estupefacta. Es decir, sorprendida y atónita. A la vez se preguntaban de dónde le viene tal prodigio de autoridad. La sorpresa era porque el ministerio era nuevo. Jesús estaba rompiendo la forma de autoridad de su tiempo: no enseñaba como los escribas y fariseos. Si seguimos con atención cada domingo el Evangelio de Marcos, iremos descubriendo al gran Maestro y de dónde le viene su autoridad. ¿Así reconocemos a Jesús? O nos preguntamos así como la gente de su tiempo: ¿Qué es esto? ¿Podrías hacer una lista de personas que enseñan con autoridad al estilo de Jesús? “¿Qué quieres tú con nosotros, Jesús de Nazaret? ¿Has venido a acabar con nosotros?” La curación del endemoniado revela no lo extraordinario de Jesús, sino la presencia del Reino entre nosotros para destruir el mal. Y bien, para destruir el mal en el mundo debemos de buscar la gracia de Dios. El Papa Francisco en su meditación diaria del 16 de abril de 2013 nos dice: “No oponer resistencia al Espíritu Santo: esta es la gracia que hoy quisiera que todos nosotros pidiéramos al Señor”. Señor, te rogamos que al escuchar tu palabra y alimentarnos de tu cuerpo y sangre, nos des la gracia para tener la fuerza y el entusiasmo para colaborar en tu misión.
