THE CHANCE TO SEARCH FOR JESUS AND TO FIND HIM

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.” Nothing could stop the crowds from gathering. Men, women, and children traveled from near and far-everywhere-to find Jesus. Even when he was not easily accessible, even when he was in deserted places that were probably remote, hard to find, and not welcoming to weary pilgrims, they found him. Word had spread quickly about the miraculous healing of the leprous man. And people wanted to know what it was all about. Undoubtedly, once they found Jesus, they knew that this was no ordinary man. Yes, he had the power to cure illnesses and drive out demons. But more than that, he had the power to change hearts. His words of compassion and mercy, and the actions that backed them up, must have caused many a conversion during those encounters in the deserted places.

Whether it was simple curiosity or profound faith that led all of those people to find Jesus we’ll never know. It was most likely some of both. But regardless of the motivation, once they found him everyone could see Jesus for who he really was. Although we don’t have the opportunity to see him in person, we do have the chance to search for Jesus and to find him. Sometimes, he may seem remote. Maybe we don’t automatically feel his presence. Perhaps, when times are tough, we wonder where he is hiding. But when we persevere in our journey by praying, reading the Bible, and receiving the sacraments, we too can find the Lord. And as we bring our needs to him, Jesus will be “moved with pity” for us as well and will extend to us the healing love that has transformed so many hearts throughout Christian history.

Lent is a time of “Preparation” for the coming of Christ. Our preparations should include Prayer, Abstinence, and Almsgiving. Prayer is an essential practice for everyone, but it is even more important to teach our child to pray every day. Days of Abstinence: Ash Wednesday and All Fridays of Lent. All Catholics 14 years of age and older. No meat. Fast: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. All Catholics from the ages of 18-59. One full meal and two lighter meals allowed. Although children under the age of 14 do not need to fast, it is good for them to begin to practice a form of “self-denial”. Almsgiving: Children should learn that there are many other people in the world that do not have the basic necessities of life to sustain them. Some do not have drinking water and many go hungry every day. Even the smallest amount of giving and caring for another person can make a difference in that person’s life.

6° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
En tiempos de Jesús, si una persona se enfermaba casi siempre era considerado como un castigo de Dios. La persona enferma, además del sufrimiento que le causaba la enfermedad, era considerada pecadora. El enfermo era excluido socialmente. No inspiraba sentimientos de compasión o ternura. Por el contrario, era repugnado y nadie se le acercaba. La peor enfermedad era la lepra. Un leproso tenía que abandonar la ciudad y vivir fuera de ella, lejos de su familia y amigos. ¡Qué terrible situación! Porque además, si alguien sin darse cuenta se le acercaba al leproso, éste debía de gritar “¡soy impuro!” “El que haya sido declarado enfermo de lepra, traerá la ropa descosida, la cabeza descubierta, se cubrirá la boca e irá gritando: ‘¡Estoy contaminado! ¡Soy impuro!’” (Lv 13, 45-46). Los leprosos sufrían por partida doble en el cuerpo y el espíritu: dolor físico por un lado y sentir la condena por el abandono de Dios, por el otro.
Sin embargo, Jesús ve todo y actúa contracorriente. Acercándose al enfermo, le toca sin miedo a contaminarse y con este milagro confirma que la salud es un derecho de la persona. Y más importante aún, que esta persona no es castigada por Dios: “Se le acercó a Jesús un leproso para suplicarle de rodillas: ‘Si tú quieres, puedes curarme’. Jesús compadeció de él, y extendiendo la mano, lo tocó y le dijo: ‘¡Si quiero: Sana!’”. ¿Qué compromiso nos queda al escuchar este Evangelio? El Papa Francisco nos impulsa a ser miembros activos para combatir la enfermedad y la pobreza en el mundo. Pide que salgamos a la periferia y nos involucremos en el servicio a los más necesitados. ¿Lo haremos?
