GIVEN A GLIMPSE INTO THE DIVINE

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

“Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.” Peter, James, and John must have been in a bit of spiritual shock. What a strange thing had just happened! They had witnessed Jesus, their teacher and friend, start glowing in his “dazzling white” clothes while engaging in conversation with two holy dead men. Then, a voice from the sky declared that Jesus was God’s son. This was not natural. It was supernatural. These three chosen apostles were given a glimpse into the divine nature of their leader. They were shown something that no one else had a chance to see until after the Resurrection: Jesus in all of his glory. But this vision was short-lived. It suddenly disappeared and then Jesus instructed his friends to keep it quiet until “the Son of Man had risen from the dead.”

Perhaps we can relate in some small way to this Transfiguration experience. Perhaps there has been a time or two in our lives when we have had a spiritual experience, when we experienced God’s healing, felt his mercy, or knew his presence was real. But then, maybe it went away. For most of us, we don’t spend the majority of our time “on the mountaintop” with these “dazzling” insights into who God is. Rather, we tend to walk a journey that is shrouded by mystery and dependent upon faith. At times, we may even second-guess the spiritual experiences of our past once they have “disappeared.” Possibly Peter, James, and John wondered if it had all been a crazy illusion. But when the Resurrection happened, they knew it was all for real. As we await the Resurrection this Lent, may we have the faith to believe that Jesus really has touched our lives and that he can lead us to eternal life.

2º DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

En este segundo Domingo de Cuaresma continuamos por el camino que nos lleva hacia la Pascua. Hoy el Señor Jesús les muestra a sus sorprendidos discípulos que la gloria existe. Pero antes debemos pasar por el duro proceso de la cruz como prueba misma de fe, renuncia y sacrificio. Marcos incluye este episodio después del cual Jesús anuncia su pasión a los discípulos, anticipando así la gloria prometida. En los tres Evangelios sinópticos la Transfiguración es reservada solo para Pedro, Santiago y Juan. El momento culmínate es cuando la voz del Padre dice: “Este es mi Hijo amado; escúchenlo”. Después de escuchar la voz, los discípulos ya no ven ni oyen nada y se quedan solos con Jesús. Los discípulos, confundidos y sin entender nada, bajan la montaña con Jesús. Él les pide no decir nada a nadie de lo ocurrido, hasta que el Hijo del Hombre resucite de entre los muertos. ¿Se imaginan la confusión de los discípulos?

¡Qué difícil de entender aun para nosotros en estos tiempos, donde la renuncia y el sacrificio no tienen a veces sentido! El tiempo de Cuaresma nos invita a ver a qué cosas estamos apegados y ver hasta dónde podemos renunciar a ellas. Claro que no se nos va a pedir sacrificar a un hijo. Y ni vamos a estar en la Transfiguración como los discípulos. Pero de todos modos es importante saber vivir con fidelidad cada día de nuestra vida, y no estar ciegos a las muchas transfiguraciones que llenan nuestra vida con la misericordia y hermosura de Dios. Pidamos al Señor un corazón generoso para reconocerlos dentro de nuestras experiencias diarias, por tristes o felices que éstas sean.

No estar ciegos a las transfiguraciones que llenan la vida

MARZO
El mes de San José

CUARESMA es un tiempo cuando podemos hacernos mas como Jesus, quien se dio en la cruz totalmente a nosotros. Por eso Cuaresma es un tiempo para discernir como podemos darnos totalmente a Jesus.

Pedro, Santiago y Juan vieron al Señor transfigurado ante sus ojos y oyeron, “Este es mi Hijo amado, escúchenlo.” ¿Estas escuchando?
Marcos 9: 2-10

In Our Thoughts & Prayers

Let us pray for all who are listed in our Book of Remembrance and all souls. Oremos por todos aquellos que están enfermos, desvalidos y convalecientes.
