EASTER SUNDAY OF THE
RESURRECTION
OF THE LORD

"They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This must have felt like adding insult to injury. Mary Magdalene had stood faithfully by Jesus up to his last moment on the cross. She had seen him laid in the tomb and she had already visited his body there to mourn and pay her last respects. But today, on her arrival, she finds the body missing. Wasn't it enough to torture and crucify her innocent Lord? Why did they have to take away her one last bit of consolation? Why did they steal his body?

Imagine the despair she must have wrestled with at this moment. As if the events of Good Friday had not been enough, now she faced another tragic moment. From Mary's perspective, things could not have gotten any worse. Every bit of evidence around her converged to make her feel completely powerless and afraid. Her eyes could only see the darkness of the empty tomb.

Here now, into this rock-bottom moment when no human hope remained, here burst in the risen Christ. Just when there was no possible solution, when everything was far beyond repair, suddenly Jesus appeared, glorious, victorious, and completely and utterly unexpected. His triumph over death was more than that: it was also a triumph over human hopelessness and despair. It was proof that God is bigger than our biggest problems. He is more powerful than the most threatening evils and all the fears that lurk around in our lives.

The joy of Easter is ours, today and every day. As Christians, we can rejoice in belonging to a God who is ready and able to break through the toughest barriers of sin and death, even when we least expect it.

DOMINGO DE PASCUA
DE LA RESURRECCIÓN
DEL SEÑOR

Esta mañana es diferente a todas las demás. La liturgia de este hermoso día nos ayuda a celebrarlo. El cirio pascual al centro de la iglesia ilumina a todos los creyentes. El agua de la pila bautismal es testigo de los nuevos bautizados. ¡Y la esperanza late en los corazones que creen en el Resucitado! El relato del Evangelio dice que Pedro y Juan corrieron después de la noticia de María Magdalena; la vida se abre paso en la historia. ¡Ahora es otra historia! ¿Creemos esto de verdad? ¿Cuál es nuestra historia al encontrarnos con Jesús resucitado?

Nuestro compromiso ahora es ser testigos. Nos lo dice Pedro en el discurso del primer anuncio cristiano. El kerigma se repetía de boca en boca: "Dios ungió con el poder del Espíritu Santo a Jesús de Nazaret y cómo éste pasó haciendo el bien, sanando a todos los oprimidos por el diablo, porque Dios estaba con él" (Hechos 10, 38). Dios cumplió su promesa y lo resucitó dándole la vida que no acaba. ¡Esto es el Domingo de Pascua! ¿Lo hemos comprendido? Ojalá que como María Magdalena, Juan y Pedro, nuestros sentidos se abran a la presencia de Jesús vivo en la Eucaristía. Este momento es fuerte y es de gran ayuda para comprender que todo discípulo ha de crecer en la fe. Como nos lo dice Juan, "Sus discípulos no entendieron estas cosas al principio, pero cuando Jesús fue glorificado, se acordaron de que habían sido escritas acerca de él" (Juan 12, 16). ¡Jesús no está entre los muertos, sino entre nosotros! Ahi es donde podemos encontrarlo.
