6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain." We sometimes tend to believe the opposite. It's not unusual for us to think, "I have chosen to be a Christian," and then to imagine that the process really started with us, that it was our initiative, our decision to believe, our act of faith that got the ball rolling in our spiritual life. Of course our decision is important, but Jesus reminds us today that he is actually the one who took the first step. He chose us. He called and invited us to be among his followers and friends. As the second reading tells us, "God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him." That happened first. The next step is ours, to accept this life that is offered to us through our own act of faith.

The other part of this equation is that, as Jesus tells us, we have been chosen for a mission. This isn't all just about our personal faith and our relationship with him. He calls us to know and love him, and when we respond, we are "appointed" to be fruitful in the world. We are supposed to live our faith in such a way that something valuable, beautiful, and useful comes from it. Jesus sends us to make the world a better place, not in a vague, feel-good, fluffy way but in a real, concrete way. He equips us to bear fruit that will remain. This isn't superficial or flighty. The work we do in the world—whether it be alleviating the suffering of the sick and poor, evangelizing those who do not know about the gift of salvation, raising our children to be faithful Christians, or carrying out our career with integrity and generosity—all of this is meant to be the effect of our response to the call that Jesus gave us.

6° DOMINGO DE PASCUA

El próximo domingo estaremos celebrando la Ascensión del Señor. Hoy estamos celebrando el Sexto Domingo de Pascua. El tiempo pasa rápido, pero la Iglesia permanece siempre alerta y atenta para servirnos y presentarnos el testamento de Jesús. El Evangelio de San Juan nos narra el discurso de Jesús al final de la Última Cena: "Permanezcan en mi amor". Ahora bien, en la actualidad decimos que nos amamos, pero muchas veces actuamos contrario al amor. Parece que la palabra "amor" está muy desgastada. Nos agobia la guerra, el hambre, la violencia y otras cosas más. Hemos usado de mal manera la palabra amor, que ya hasta la hemos devaluado. Dios nos pide que sirvimos al hermano en necesidad. El amor a Dios y el amor al prójimo van de la mano. Y para descubrir ese amor hay que captar la entrega de Jesús.

La maldad obstaculiza el amor y la fuente del amor, que es Dios. Examinemos nuestras acciones para que no vayamos nosotros a ser obstáculos del amor de Dios para mis hermanos y hermanas. Esta semana tomemos tiempo para reflexionar sobre nuestra forma de amar a la familia, amigos y compañeros de trabajo, sabiendo que debemos de ser imitadores de Jesús. Debemos de ejercitar el amor en todas nuestras circunstancias de la vida diaria. La caridad es urgente: el mundo sufre y aliviarlo es nuestra responsabilidad. Jesús nos lo explica así: "Les he dicho esto para que mi alegría esté en ustedes y su alegría sea plena".
