THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." It's easy to take this formula for granted. Every time we attend Mass, we make the sign of the cross and say "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Many of us also make the sign of the cross before meals or to begin our personal prayers. Because we are so used to hearing this Trinitarian reference to the one God in three Persons, we might tend to gloss over its significance. But today, on the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, we stop to remind ourselves what this really means.

We might begin by remembering that Christianity is absolutely unique in its belief in the Trinity. No other religion claims such a remarkable doctrine-that God is one in three. And it's important to understand that Christians didn't make this up; it was revealed to us directly from Christ himself. As we hear in today's Gospel, and elsewhere throughout the four Gospels, Jesus taught about this mysterious union of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As Christians, we follow what he taught.

Perhaps the most beautiful part of this great mystery of God's nature is what it means for us. We believe in a God whose very essence is made up of loving relationships between three divine Persons. It follows that, as people made in God's image (cf. Gn 1:27), we are to live in loving relationships. We are made to love: to love God, to love one another, and to love ourselves. Our God is not a force, a power, or an idea. Our God is a personal God who loves each of us and calls us to do the same.

LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

¿Quién es la Santísima Trinidad? ¿Recuerdan la pregunta? Lo sabíamos de memoria y lo repetíamos hasta aprenderlo cuando éramos niños. "La Santísima Trinidad es Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo; tres personas distintas y un solo Dios verdadero". Se tenía que saber intelectualmente, pero quizá no en el corazón. Fue hasta después del Concilio Vaticano II que los catecismos diocesanos y parroquiales cambiaron, tratando de explicar este misterio. Ahora podemos decir que la liturgia misma nos muestra ese profundo amor trinitario. Terminamos el ciclo pascual y celebramos solemnemente a la Santísima Trinidad. Fuimos bautizados en su nombre, y en su nombre iniciamos la Eucaristía y muchas de nuestras actividades.

La idea principal de esta celebración, iniciada en el siglo X, es recordar el dogma de la Trinidad. Jesús es el que nos ha revelado a Dios, ese Dios que para muchos no tiene acceso. Sin embargo, las lecturas de hoy nos revelan claramente y nos abren al misterio de Dios. La Trinidad es el misterio del amor, y por Jesús nos asomamos a este misterio: "Y aquel que es la Palabra se hizo hombre y habitó entre nosotros. Hemos visto su gloria, gloria le corresponde como a Unigénito del Padre" (Juan 1, 14). También podemos confrontar el libro del Apocalipsis 1, 8. "Yo soy el Alfa y la Omega, dice el Señor Dios, el que es, el que era y el que ha de venir, el todopoderoso". Y en Mateo 28, 19: "Vayan, pues, y enseñen a todas las naciones, bautizándolas en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo". ¡Somos el amor en la Trinidad!
