15TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick-no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” Jesus gave the Twelve Apostles a remarkable mission. He sent them out two by two to preach repentance, to cast out evil spirits, and to heal the sick. And he made them do it in a spirit of complete dependence upon God. They were not allowed to take anything along that would have given them material comfort or security. These men-who did not even have the witness of other apostles or saints to inspire or give them courage, and who had not yet beheld the Resurrection of the Lord-stepped out into the world with literally nothing but their faith in this man named Jesus. And look what happened! “The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.”

The apostles' trust in God's power to work these miracles through their hands began with trust in God's power to provide for their own needs. Because they didn't have food, shelter, or money, every time they received food or shelter or had their needs met, the apostles were able to see that God was at work in their midst. This experience bolstered their faith and encouraged them in their mission.

When we find ourselves questioning whether we really have the “power” to do what God wants us to do, then we ought to step back and try to depend a little more directly upon God's providence. Tithing is one way to accomplish this. When we set aside a portion of our income for the sake of others, we make an act of trust in God's power to provide for us. Surrendering this element of care for ourselves allows God to meet our needs himself. And when he does, our faith will flourish too.

15º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Hay tres cosas que debemos de atender en este domingo para llegar a ser verdaderos discípulos misioneros de Jesucristo. La primera es la misión, la segunda el mensaje y la tercera conocer los rasgos de los discípulos. En la Exhortación Apostólica, “La Alegría del Evangelio” del Papa Francisco (§9), nos dice que “El bien siempre tiende a comunicarse. Toda experiencia auténtica de verdad y de belleza busca por sí misma su expansión, y cualquier persona que viva una profunda liberación adquiere mayor sensibilidad ante las necesidades de los demás”. Si analizamos bien este mensaje podremos comprender que la historia de la salvación se ha llevado a realizar por medio de un proceso de enviar. En la primera alianza, Dios envió patriarcas, reyes y profetas. De esta forma se hizo presente su presencia. Luego envió a su Hijo Jesucristo, y él a su vez envió a sus discípulos. Les preparó para salir de dos en dos y con un mensaje claro y sencillo: curar, dar consuelo y acompañar.

Mensaje, misión y discipulado. Por nuestro bautismo el compromiso vale para ti y para mí. También somos enviados cada domingo al terminar la Eucaristía. El sacerdote o el diácono nos envían con esta o diferente frase. “La alegría del Señor sea nuestra fuerza. Pueden ir en paz”. Ahí comienza nuestro discipulado, somos enviados a continuar el compromiso de dar a conocer el amor de Dios en el mundo. Es importante tomar en cuenta que para ser enviados, primero hay que sentir dentro del corazón el fuego del discipulado. Pidamos que el Señor nos conceda ser verdaderos discípulos y discípulas en el lugar donde nos encontremos.
