28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.” Jesus gave this man some challenging news. And sadly, the man turned away instead of taking up the challenge. When the fellow had first approached Jesus, he was excited, optimistic, and confident. We know this because he ran up to the Lord and “knelt down before him.” He may have been quite proud of himself when he was able to say about the commandments, “all of these I have observed from my youth.” The fellow probably thought his work was done. But Jesus knew this man better than he knew himself.

The Lord understood that even though this believer had followed the rules, his heart was not yet really filled with the love of God. Instead, his heart was filled with his possessions. When Jesus challenged him to become detached from his wealth—to sell his things and give to the poor—it was too much. The man left Jesus. His excitement and confidence were gone, and he was sad. Instead of following Jesus with wholehearted generosity, this rich man chose to keep his worldly comforts. But he gave up Jesus’ invitation to “have treasure in heaven.” Yes, he kept his stuff. But he was miserable.

What are we clinging to that prevents us from accepting Jesus’ invitation? For some of us it may be wealth or possessions, for others the quest for success or the desire for popularity. Or it may be entirely different. God knows, and deep down we do too. Today, Jesus is calling us to love him with our whole heart, not just a comfortable percentage. It may seem too much to give, but this faithful surrender is the path to happiness, both now and in the life to come.

28° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Hoy analizaremos el concepto de la riqueza y sus consecuencias, teniendo en mente que ser un verdadero discípulo tiene como consecuencia ser pobre. Cada domingo es una oportunidad que Dios nos ofrece para ir hilando nuestra vida de fe. Cada domingo Dios nos invita a dejar el apeamiento de las cosas, a aligerar la carga, a ver con más claridad el camino que nos lleva a Cristo. Cada domingo encontramos una respuesta para avanzar e interiorizar en el camino espiritual, no solo individualmente sino también de una forma comunitaria. ¡Esto es lo hermoso de ser cristiano! No estamos solos: la comunidad avanza junto a nosotros.

¿Qué significa ser pobre? ¿Qué significa ser rico? El Libro de la Sabiduría nos dice lo siguiente: “Supliqué y se me concedió la prudencia; invoqué y vino sobre mí el espíritu de sabiduría” (Sab 7, 7). El primer paso es ser verdaderamente sabios. Pero sabios de acuerdo a Dios, tomando conciencia de nuestra propia pobreza y debilidades. La sabiduría consiste en tener la lucidez de saber lo que es verdaderamente importante. Por lo tanto, siendo conscientes de nuestra pobreza, roguemos a Dios que seamos capaces de discernir y distinguir entre lo bueno y lo malo. ¿Cómo hacerlo? Una forma es acogiendo la palabra de Dios con sincero corazón y sin prejuicio. La otra manera es desprendernos de todo lo que nos impide seguir al Señor. La persona que el Evangelio nos propone es buena: no hace nada que pueda perjudicar a los demás, cumple los mandamientos a la perfección, pero su riqueza le impide seguir al Señor. ¿Qué obstáculos tenemos nosotros para seguirlo?
