The timing was strange, really. After a lifetime of fishing to make a living, these men had just hauled in so many fish that “their nets were tearing” and “the boats were in danger of sinking.” Just imagine the profit on the other side of this night’s work! Just imagine how their reputation would have grown. How easy it would have been to go out and buy a new fleet of boats and to upgrade their stash of nets. Most likely for the first time, wealth was within reach. And yet, just then, Simon, James, and John left their boats on the shore and followed Jesus in the task of “catching men.” This is astonishing. Not only did they give up their sudden monetary success, they gave up EVERYTHING. In a moment’s time, these men radically altered their life, their plans, their future, and their fortune. And civilization has never been the same since. Thanks in large part to the courage of these first apostles, and of their successors the bishops, and of all the faithful men and women religious throughout history who have “left everything and followed him,” our church has continued to flourish and our culture has been greatly enhanced. Those of us who are members of the laity are likewise called to follow Christ, of course. The tremendous sacrifices that priests and religious sisters make should inspire us, and remind us that serving Christ-at any cost-is worth it. Their lives stand as a powerful witness indeed. Today, let us pause to thank God for these men and women and to ask his blessing on them all.

 de los peces que fueron tantos que la red casi se rompía, lo dejó perplejo y a la vez le afirmó su vocación de apóstol de Jesucristo. Confianza en Dios a toda prueba aunque no se sepa ni cuándo ni dónde será la pregunta de lanzar la red para pescar. Seguir la voluntad de Dios cuesta, cumplir su mandato de proclamar el Reino lleva su afán. Hay que tomar decisión y partido o estoy con Jesús o en contra de él. ¿Cuántas veces en mi vida he dicho: "Aquí estoy Señor, envíame"? ¿Cuántas veces en mi jornada he dejado todo para seguir al Señor? Un verdadero encuentro con Dios no deja a la persona como estaba antes. Es más consciente de sus responsabilidades y compromisos. Fíjate en los protagonistas de las lecturas. A Isaías con la visión de la gloria Dios le cambia el panorama completamente y responde: "Aquí estoy, Señor, envíame" (Is 6, 8). Pedro y sus compañeros al encuentro de Jesús: "Pero, confiado en tu palabra, echaré las redes" (Lc 4, 5). Estos hechos nos relatan verdaderos momentos de vocacionales. El compromiso es seguir a Jesús anunciando su obra de salvación. No hay que perder tiempo, descubramos dónde nos llama el Señor. Dios sabe nuestras limitaciones, pero, con su gracia, se puede todo. Pidamos al Señor que nos ayude a captar el mensaje que debemos transmitir y hacerlo con el testimonio de nuestra vida. ¡Que así sea! Oremos por todos aquellos que están enfermos, desvalidos y convalecientes. Let us pray for all souls and those listed in our Book of Remembrance.	5º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO Jesús le pide a Pedro llevar la barca mar adentro para pescar. Ir más allá de lo que se tiene planeado para encontrar lo inesperado, lo que no se espera encontrar.
