He talked to women in public, touched the “unclean” to heal them, and chummed it up with tax collectors and sinners. This didn’t make sense. It didn’t fit into the standard categories. And so the religious leaders began to complain. In response to this, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son. Through this story, he illustrated that God loves all of his children even when they have not behaved perfectly. But more than this, the tale also deals with the resentment of the older son--the one who always followed the law. Like the self-righteous Pharisees and scribes, the older brother complained. “All these years I served you,” the son said, “and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends.” But how does the father respond? “My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours.” In other words, the older brother had no reason to complain or be angry. He already enjoyed all good gifts. The father simply wanted him to rejoice that his brother had returned home. “He was lost and has been found.” It’s important for those of us who attend Mass regularly, participate in the sacraments, and serve in our parishes not to fall into the trap of being like the bitter older brother or the complaining Pharisees. We must welcome everyone in our midst with joy, not resentment or judgment. It can be easy to think that others don’t deserve as much as we do, and to forget to be grateful for all that we have. But we are ALL called to “celebrate and rejoice” when the lost return home. 4 ° DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

El relato del Evangelio de hoy se inicia con la narración del hijo menor que pide la parte de la herencia que le toca y enseguida se prepara y se va de casa. Se aleja sin pensarlo más, gasta a sus anchas lo que había heredado y cuando se termina todo se acuerda que tiene un papá que le ha dado a manos llenas sin esperar nada. El énfasis de la parábola está en la sorprendente reacción del padre que lo recibe con gran misericordia. El Papa Francisco en este Año Santo de la Misericordia nos invita a profundizar en lo siguiente: "Siempre tenemos necesidad de contemplar el misterio de la misericordia. Es fuente de alegría, de serenidad y de paz. Es condición para nuestra salvación. Misericordia: es la palabra que revela el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. Misericordia: es el acto último y supremo con el cual Dios viene a nuestro encuentro. Misericordia: es la ley fundamental que habita en el corazón de cada persona cuando mira con ojos sinceros al hermano que encuentra en el camino de la vida. Misericordia: es la vía que une Dios y el hombre, porque abre el corazón a la esperanza de ser amados para siempre no obstante el límite de nuestro pecado" (Misericordiae Vultus, número 2).

¿Cómo nos sentimos nosotros ante estas palabras del Papa? ¿Cómo responderemos al Evangelio? No olvidemos que, no hay culpa, por grande que sea, que no pueda ser perdonada. Que volver a los brazos del Padre donde siempre nos está esperando debe ser una fiesta y no una vergüenza.
