The gift Jesus gave to his disciples, he has also given to us

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” Can we hear Jesus saying these words to us? It’s often easier for us to imagine the apostles hearing this consoling command and following it, than to think of it really applying to us. After all, Jesus was standing right there with them. Can he really expect US, two thousand years later, not to be troubled by the cares of life? But the fact is that the gift Jesus was giving to his disciples, he has also given to us: “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name.”

Jesus told them that peace would be theirs, and it can also be ours. Peace is, in fact, one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, along with love, joy, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. These fruits don’t come from us. They aren’t just for people with certain cheery personalities. These fruits come from God straight into our souls through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. Through our baptism and confirmation, Jesus gives us the gift of his Spirit. And then his peace, and so many other gifts can truly become ours if we open our hearts to them.

This is a reality that we can contemplate whenever worry or anxiety strike. Whatever may be disturbing our inner peace--whether it be a family feud, some kind of physical suffering, or a difficult decision to make at work or school--we can take comfort in knowing that we can find peace even in the midst of the problem. “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you,” Jesus says. But he continues, “Not as the world gives do I give it to you.” In other words, God doesn’t promise to take away the struggle in an instant. But he does promise to give us his peace even in the midst of life’s trials and tribulations.

6° DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Estamos avanzando en el camino de la Pascua y nos estamos aproximando a la fiesta de Pentecostés. San Juan nos dice que es el Espíritu Santo el que nos hará recordar todo lo que Cristo nos dijo --palabra por palabra serán esclarecidas las enseñanzas del Evangelio. En la lectura de hoy por ejemplo: Jesús nos brinda su paz la cual es muy distinta a la que da el mundo. “Les doy mi paz, les dejo la paz. No se la doy como la da el mundo” (Jn 14, 27). La paz que Jesús nos ofrece tiene tres dimensiones. La primera es que se experimente una conciencia clara y libertad en las decisiones personales y comunitarias, seguida de un sentido fuerte de solidaridad en favor de los otros para el bien común y por último obediencia incondicional a la voluntad de Dios.

¿Has experimentado esta paz? ¿Cuál dimensión de la paz debes trabajar en ti? La paz en el sentido bíblico es un don, un regalo de Dios que contiene todo el bien posible. Jesús da el regalo de la paz a sus discípulos como herencia y es nuestro deber seguir construyendo la paz en base a esa herencia. Los cristianos estamos llamados en el mundo para vivir y ser paz, para seguir creyendo que ésta existe. En dos domingos estaremos celebrando la venida del Espíritu Santo; será el tiempo de pedir sus dones, de pedirle que nos ayude a crecer en la fe, a ver más claro lo que Dios desea de nuestra vida. Recordemos que la presencia del Espíritu en la Iglesia continuará hasta que Cristo venga glorioso.

Si alguien me ama, guardará mis palabras, y mi Padre lo amará y vendremos a él. ¿Cómo responderé a ese amor? Estoy llamado/a seguir el sacerdocio o la vida religiosa?
Juan 14:23-29

THANK YOU DINNER!
It was great to see so many parishioners come together! The St. Jude Altar Guild and the Knights of Columbus Council wish to thank Father Jerry and Father Loren and all who attended the “Thank You Dinner”. We are so proud of our scholarship winners: Reyanna Hernandez, Daisy Flores, Vanessa Castillo, Nydia Perez, Laura Cruz, and Brian Martin. Thanks to the Riley Family for the root beer floats, especially Ramona, who single handedly created the yummy treat! To those of you who helped with the clean up after dinner, thank you.

ST. JUDE ALTAR GUILD
The next St. Jude Altar Guild meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 2, at 6:00 pm. Anyone interested is invited to attend.
