14TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.”
Can we be counted among the laborers?

Are we ready and willing to work for the sake of our faith, or are we looking for the easy way out?

Our faith is more than a personal experience. It’s more than a routine that fits into our weekly schedule. Our faith is meant to be shared with others, even when that requires a bit of work on our part. In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls his followers to “Go on your way,” to prepare people for the Lord. And we are called to do the same. We are meant to go on our way-out of our homes, and even out of our churches-to share the good news of the Gospel and to serve those in need.

It can be tempting to think, “I believe, I go to church, isn’t that enough?” But Jesus tells us that there is an abundant harvest out there-countless people who may just need to know that Jesus loves them or that someone is willing to help. If we don’t step up to the task then those people will miss out on that word of encouragement, that personal invitation to Mass, that act of kindness that might have made all the difference in their life. God may be calling some of us to an even deeper commitment-to be a lay minister in a parish or to discern a religious vocation, for example-but there is no doubt that God is calling all of us to labor for his kingdom in some way.

This mission isn’t for someone else. It’s for us to carry out the work of the disciples because we are today’s disciples. When we accept this mission, we will not only enjoy seeing the benefits that others receive, we will also rejoice with those whose “names are written in heaven.”

14° DOMINGO
DEL
TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús invita a sus discípulos a trabajar en el demandante campo de la evangelización. Esta demanda es entendida muy bien por los inmigrantes que hacen su labor arduamente y la mayoría de las veces con dificultades en sus labores. Diariamente hay mucho trabajo en el campo pero pocos trabajadores comprometidos a hacerlo bien. Jesús lo describe así. “La cosecha es mucha y los trabajadores pocos. Rueguen, por tanto, al dueño de la mies que envíe trabajadores a sus campos”. Rogar, pedir, llevar a cabo, con paga o sin paga los misioneros evangelizadores se mueven de un lugar a otro para levantar la cosecha y en cada nuevo campo seguir plantando la semilla del Reino de Dios.

¿Qué riesgos has encontrado al compartir el Evangelio a otros? ¿Cómo has experimentado el gozo del poder transformativo de Dios en tu vida? Dejar a Dios el cuidado moderador de cada uno para ser formados en su misión es un reto de todos los días. La última parte del Evangelio muestra los aspectos beneficiosos de un dificultoso trabajo. Los propios esfuerzos se notan y se ven situaciones nunca vistas de los discípulos. “Señor, hasta los demonios se nos someten en tu nombre”. El gozo verdadero les viene del poder de Dios, por haber confiado al llamado de llevar a cabo la misión. Todos los bautizados que responden a la invitación de ir a trabajar en la viña nunca van solos. ¡Señor, envía

La cosecha es mucha, pero los obreros pocos. Ruegen al dueño de la mies que mande obreros a sus campos.
Lucas 10:1-9

VIVIR LA LITURGIA
INSPIRACION DE LA SEMANA

Tenemos que prepararnos por el fracaso inevitable porque hemos recibido la tarea de proclamar el Evangelio. No somos Dios, y por eso no somos perfectos. Armados con las buenas intenciones y un mensaje de esperanza y alegria, las personas a quienes traemos la buena noticia no siempre nos recibirán con los brazos abiertos. Si acaba en el existo o fracaso, el continuar nuestra tarea nos recuerda que no somos Dios y que la alegria viene del acto de hacer algo.

COMIDA

Comida sera distribuido el lunes, 11 de julio. Venga el lunes a las 1:00-4:00 pm en la esquina de Elm, en frente de la Iglesia Presbyterian en el calle de Elm.
