

MASS INTENTIONS  INTENCIONES PARA LAS MISAS		AUGUST 7, 2016
Saturday, August 6, 2016 5:00 PM Frank Gregorio (D) By Mary C. Silveira		19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME “You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” The only thing we really know about when Jesus will come again is that we won’t be expecting it. As Jesus instructs us today, the best plan of action is thus to be prepared at all times. We need to be ready and waiting to meet Jesus so that when he does return, it won’t catch us off guard. A little thought experiment might be helpful here. Let’s imagine that the doorbell rings this evening after dinner. We open the door and find Jesus standing there. He asks to come in. Are we ready for this honored guest? What will he find when he steps in unannounced? Is everyone at peace around the house? Is everyone speaking with love and acting with generosity? Is there anything in our home that, in his presence, we might be ashamed of--books, shows, movies, or music that aren’t appropriate? Pictures, Facebook posts, or a record of Internet history that we hope he won’t discover? Now, imagine that he came unannounced into our HEARTS this evening. What would he find there? Are our hearts ready to welcome Jesus? In truth, we need not wait for the second coming to have Jesus in our hearts. He wants to live there already today! So regardless of the timing of the second coming of Christ, we would do well to follow the traditional spiritual practice of a daily examination of conscience to see where we are doing well and where we need to make changes. Taking such a deliberate spiritual inventory is an excellent way to help us be ready for Jesus like those servants “who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.”

19° DOMINGO EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO  ¿Dónde tenemos nuestro tesoro? El texto del Evangelio de hoy nos muestra diversos centros de atención.	Veremos en lo que Jesús enfatiza en diferentes ocasiones y es la imagen del tesoro para hablar del Reino. El tesoro es deseado, es algo así como sacarnos la lotería cada semana que la rifan, o que nos llegue una herencia no esperada. En la vida nos encontramos rodeados de tesoros que nos quieren vender muchas cosas con la promesa de ser felices. Sin embargo, Jesús nos dice que poseer el Reino de Dios implica otra cosa a la que debemos poner atención. Esta va en la medida de donde ponemos los bienes que tenemos, del cómo compartimos nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro con los demás. Se trata de no acumular, sino de buscar y dar, dar siempre, para obtener el tesoro que no se acaba.	40 DÍAS POR LA VIDA Es una campaña anual pro-vida. Por favor, únase a nosotros para una hora en oracion y ayuno en una vigilia de oración pacífica en frente de la clínica de aborto Planned Parenthood, 650 N.
