25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Are you envious because I am generous?" The landowner in today's Gospel parable surprised everyone.

Contrary to standard practice, he paid all of his laborers the same wage, regardless of how many hours they had worked! Of course this was a very pleasant surprise for those who had begun their job late in the day. And, understandably, it was something of a disappointment for those who had toiled since the morning. From their perspective, they should have gotten more than the others. But in fact the landowner was not cheating anyone; he was simply being especially generous with the latecomers.

This story would have had a special meaning for the Jewish audience listening to Jesus. They, the Chosen People, were the laborers who had started at 9:00 am. They belonged to the group with a long history of worshipping the true God. Non-Jewish Gentiles, on the other hand, had appeared late in the game. Jesus was making the point that just because he would offer the same salvation and mercy to everyone, there should be no reason for the Jews to complain. They had received their promised Messiah; so what if, in God's mercy, he allowed others who had not waited so long to be saved as well? Divine generosity is not meant to be a cause for jealousy.

Now, we may feel removed from the concerns of those Jews. But the basic lesson remains relevant: that we ought to appreciate God's generosity, even when it reaches to those whom we may not expect God to forgive. Those who have long been faithful, for example, might think they deserve more benefits than sinners who repent late in life. But instead, we should all rejoice to see God's mercy extended to everyone, no matter when they joined the fold.

25° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Creo que alguna vez en su vida han escuchado que se dice, "Es la voluntad de Dios por las circunstancias que están atravesando". Se busca la voluntad de Dios en la vida de un lugar a otro, y se lucha por comprender la enfermedad, muerte y desolación como si es lo que Dios así lo quiere. Hoy las lecturas nos ayudan a reflexionar en lo justo que es Dios y se nos explica la manera de entender su voluntad. El profeta Isaías ayuda a los exiliados de Babilonia a comprender y tener esperanza en medio del desastre que vivían, mostrándoles el cómo Dios está con su pueblo: "Mis pensamientos no son los pensamientos de ustedes, sus caminos no son mis caminos" (Is 55, 8). Dios ofrece un nuevo comienzo con una condición -conversión del corazón.

En el Evangelio, la parábola choca con los trabajadores de la viña a causa de que el dueño demuestra que sus pensamientos no son los pensamientos de los trabajadores. Y clarifica, "¿Qué no puedo hacer con lo mío lo que yo quiero? ¿O vas a tenerme rencor porque yo soy bueno?" De igual manera, los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros, los últimos" (Mt 20, 16). Dios es siempre nuevo, generoso e imposible de alcanzar con nuestro pensamiento. La invitación para hoy es ver su gran misericordia ya que ahí se basa su justicia. Hoy iniciamos la Carta a los filipenses y San Pablo lo explica diciendo a los de su tiempo y a nosotros lo siguiente: "Porque para mí, la vida es Cristo, y la muerte, una ganancia" (Flp 1, 21). Es decir, otra manera de hacer la voluntad de Dios en nuestra vida.
