2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time - 2° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

2ND SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

“He first found his own brother Simon and told him, ‘We have found the Messiah.’” After spending the day in the company of Christ, Andrew took action. He shared the good news! Instead of keeping his newfound friendship with Jesus all to himself, Andrew invited his brother into the fold. Andrew found Simon and “brought him to Jesus.” This was no small matter because Simon would become Peter, the first pope! How important it is to bring others along with us to meet Christ!

Yet, how often do we reach out with the kind of confidence that Andrew had? Are we ready and willing to share our faith with our family and friends? Do we consider our relationship with Jesus a gift to be shared, or a fact to be safely hidden away in our personal prayer corner?

Part of our call as Christians is to evangelize others, to share with them the good news of salvation. Loving Jesus and following his moral commands is essential, of course, but it is not the end of the story. The Gospel message is meant for all people, and we are meant to be its messengers. Sometimes this requires us to step out of our comfort zone. It may mean speaking up when we'd rather be silent. It may mean inviting someone to Mass when they might say no. But it might also mean a conversion for someone we care about. It might mean a new minister for the Church. Ultimately, it might mean another saint in heaven.

None of that is up to us, however. What we can control is only whether we share our faith joyfully and extend the invitation to others to experience the peace that comes from knowing Christ.

2° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Me imagino que no viene a nuestra memoria Juan Bautista cuando escuchamos las palabras del sacerdote en la Misa cuando dice: “Este es el Cordero de Dios”. Juan había preparado a sus discípulos a tal grado que cuando encontraran a Jesús, lo siguieran y de él se olvidaran. El Evangelio lo narra así: “En aquel tiempo, estaba Juan el Bautista con dos de sus discípulos, y fijando los ojos en Jesús, que pasaba, dijo: ‘Ese es el Cordero de Dios’. Los dos discípulos, al oír estas palabras, siguieron a Jesús” (Jn 1, 35). Frase de triunfo y de fuerza que escuchamos en cada Misa. También observemos la pregunta de Jesús a los discípulos de Juan: “¿Qué buscan?” La respuesta de ellos fue: “¿Dónde vives, Rabi?” Jesús los invita y nos invita a cada momento de nuestra vida: “Vengan a ver”.

Para reflexionar durante la semana en las lecturas de hoy veremos que algunas veces el llamado y quien llama no es claro, como escuchamos en la primera lectura. En otras ocasiones quien llama es muy claro como en el Evangelio. De cualquier manera, cuando respondemos, nuestra vida cambia. ¿Quién me ha guiado a Jesús en mi vida? ¿Al seguir a Jesús lo he encontrado en...? ¿A quién he llevado a Jesús cuando lo he encontrado? Las respuestas van de acuerdo al grado de compromiso que tenemos con nosotros mismos, con Dios y con la comunidad, pero lo más importante va de acuerdo a la relación personal que tenemos con Jesús. De ahí parte todo del “vengan a ver” y quedarnos extasiados como los primeros discípulos que estuvieron con Jesús todo el día. ¡Atrévase, Jesús le espera, está en los pobres

MAKING ANY NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS?

Here are ten suggested resolutions that will make our Eucharistic celebrations more meaningful.

1. I resolve to arrive at Mass on time or even early.
2. Before Mass begins, I resolve to silence my cell phone.
3. I resolve to go to the bathroom before I leave home, so I don't have to be distracted throughout the Mass.
4. I resolve to keep my children under control during Mass.
5. I resolve to sing. Loudly. And on Key.
6. I resolve not to wear shorts to Sunday Mass unless I'm under the age of five.
7. I resolve not to snore during Fathers's homilies.
8. When the collection basket comes by, I resolve not to put in a 10 dollar bill and then take out nine.
9. I resolve not to bolt for the exit right after communion.
10. Finally, when I am in my car, waiting to get out of the parking lot after Mass, I resolve to use all five fingers when I wave at my fellow parishioners.

OOPS, ERROR OF OMISSION

In last week's bulletin, in our "Thank you, advertisers" article, the name of Tamara Couto, realtor for London Properties was omitted. The bulletin editor apologizes for this error.
