4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.” Those gathered in the synagogue where Jesus taught had never heard anything like this before. They were used to the preaching of the well-educated scribes, but Jesus possessed something that those men lacked: authority. Instead of merely interpreting the laws of the prophets, Jesus presented a new vision, indeed, he shared the good news of the Gospel with his listeners.

We do not have the opportunity to stand in the presence of Jesus in the same way that those first-century Jews did, but nonetheless we can also stand in awe of his authority. His teachings are available to us through the sacred Scriptures that the Church has preserved and through the sacred tradition that the Church carries on. And in a special way, Christ’s authority continues to inspire and guide us through the ministries of the papacy, episcopacy, and priesthood that Jesus established on our behalf while he was yet on earth.

As Catholics, we have a special share in the astonishing authority of Jesus through the hierarchy of the Church. Although this structure is often misunderstood or misinterpreted, it is actually an authority rooted in service and modeled after Christ who told his apostles, “The greatest among you must be your servant” (Mt 23:11).

This humble exercise of authority is contrary to the worldly search for power. And whenever we find ourselves in a position of authority, we too should strive to lead and direct others in the true spirit of Christian love and service. Chances are, if we truly imitate Christ in this way, people will be astonished at what they see.

4° DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Las personas están frecuentemente en nuestra sociedad engañando a otras por su poder al hablar, explotan y manipulan con su forma de expresión. ¿Cómo podemos discernir cuando uno que habla tiene el interés desde el corazón? La respuesta no es fácil de discernir, pero algunas indicaciones pueden ayudar para saber si el que comunica lo hace acertadamente. Que sus acciones vayan de acuerdo a sus palabras, cuando el cuidado y la compasión son evidentes y su forma de actuar es sencilla y honesta. Cuando el bienestar y punto principal de los otros es su preocupación. ¿Conoces personas que hablan con autoridad? ¿Son coherentes sus palabras y obras?

Veamos como Jesús convierte la sinagoga-un lugar de oración-en un lugar de acción, realizando el milagro de sanar al endemoniado. La autenticidad y la autoridad de Jesús fue inmediatamente discernible, no había equivocación, su actuar y hacer fue claramente entendible y respetado al mostrar la necesidad de la situación humana de la persona. El siempre actúa en beneficio del otro. Pero, ¿cuál es el reto para nosotros? ¿Cuándo hablamos con autoridad? La autoridad y el respeto muchas veces son usados para causar mal y miedo. La invitación es ser auténticos y actuar así. Estar en sintonía con los demás implica sencillamente que las palabras vayan de acuerdo con los actos que realizamos en nuestra vida diaria. En la sociedad actual, existen muchas personas poseídas por la ambición, la mentira, el orgullo, la infidelidad, el poder y mucho más. Pidamos a Jesús que diga con autoridad, “¡Cállate y sal de él!” (Mc 1, 26). Recuerda, la autoridad se adquiere con la oración y el diálogo.

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

There is something about children that makes people smile. Their innocence, hopefulness, and amazing and amusing things they say and do bring out good qualities in people. Bring a child into a nursing home and watch people light up. Or walk into a store with a two-year-old and see people smile. Or watch when a dad carries a toddler on his shoulders and even people driving by smile.

Simeon must have smiled at Jesus. He saw more than just an infant smiling and proud parents. He knew he looked upon the hope and promise of Israel. He saw his “heir apparent,” the priest, prophet, and king who would bring the message of salvation to the world. Simeon no doubt smiled as he gazed upon the infant so many had longed to see.

Joy is a very important part of faith. Knowing the Lord and sharing in his life should bring us a sense of joyfulness and peace, if we really believe in the promises of Jesus. Too often people leave church the same way they leave a root canal! We know and have seen for ourselves the great work of love and hope that God has done. We are his heirs!
